IT'S A TRAP, A BAIT AND switch tactic to prepare people into taking the Mark of the Beast (Sunday worship services), which will result in suffering the horrors of the 7 last plagues. President Trump made an executive order on May 4th that all Americans are to honor May 16th to honor the 7th sabbath (Saturday). The agenda is to truck the Christian world into demanding a day for themselves: Sunday. Because Trump places honor on the so-called Jewish Saturday issue, this tricks the so-called Christian world into also demanding a day for themselves, which they call the Lord's Day, Sunday, thereby getting people to take the Mark of the Beast. Had they bothered to study the Bible, they would have realized that God calls the 7th day sabbath, Saturday, the Lord's Day (Isaiah 58:13, 14 and Matthew 12:8). God blessed only one day of the week as holy (Genesis 2:1-3), and as a sign of loyalty towards Himself (Ezekiel 20:12, 20). God promises a blessing to anyone who observes the 7th day sabbath (Saturday), and the word sabbath means a day to rest from all work (Exodus 20:8-11). Tim, 208-217-8942 text

Steven Curtis Chapman Announces Final Leg of SPEECHLESS 25th Anniversary Tour for Fall 2026

— Spokane Fox Theater —

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Following overwhelming fan response and a successful multi-leg run celebrating one of the most beloved albums of his career, five-time GRAMMY® winner and the most awarded artist in Christian music history, Steven Curtis Chapman, has announced the final leg of his acclaimed SPEECHLESS 25th Anniversary Tour, returning this fall for one last run in 14 cities across the country.

The tour honors the 25th anniversary of Chapman's iconic, platinum album SPEECHLESS—a landmark project that produced seven No. 1 radio singles, including the title track "Speechless," and remains one of the most defining albums in Christian music history. This special anniversary concert experience features the album performed front to back in its entirety, bringing songs like "Dive," "Be Still and Know," "Fingerprints of God," and more to the stage in a way fans have never experienced before. Each evening also includes additional career-spanning hits and special surprises, making this final run a must-see event for longtime fans and new audiences alike.

"Honestly, when we first launched the SPEECHLESS 25th Anniversary Tour, I had no idea just how meaningful these nights would become," Chapman said. "Getting to celebrate these songs, and the stories, memories, and faith journeys connected to them, with so many people has been incredibly special. I'm very excited to add one final run this fall. I'm so grateful for every person who has come out, and I can't wait to share these songs in even more cities before we bring this celebration to a close."

Originally launched in 2025 to commemorate the album's milestone anniversary, the SPEECHLESS 25th Anniversary Tour quickly became one of Chapman's most celebrated and in-demand tours in recent years. This fall's run marks fans' final opportunity to experience the unforgettable live celebration of SPEECHLESS before the tour concludes. An exclusive pre-sale begins Wednesday, May 20th, with tickets available to the public starting Friday, May 22nd at 10am local time. To sign up for the pre-sale, visit bit.ly/SCC26SignUp. For tickets and more information, visit tprlive.co.

Stack Caprese Salad With Couscous in a Tin Can

When it's time to prep a dinner meal this week, get your kids stacking the green, white and red layers of fresh basil, mozzarella and tomato. If they say that their culinary creation reminds them of winter's Christmas colors, guide them to a photo of the tri-color green, white and red Italian flag. You'll be on a fresh course into a new season of the year -- and globally for that matter! This fun-to-make version using a surprise ingredient -- couscous -- is a tasty spring and summertime twist on Italy's traditional caprese salad.

I've always believed in using the right tools for the right job. In this recipe, it's four recycled aluminum cans. Once you've removed the labels and both ends of the four 7- to 8-ounce clean cans (I used 7-ounce diced green chilies cans and made sure that there weren't any sharp edges), gather the following ingredients to create a fancy-looking presentation:

STACKED CAPRESE SALAD WITH COUSCOUS

- Four aluminum 7- to 8-ounce cans with both ends removed
- Nonstick cooking spray or olive oil
- 2 medium ripe tomatoes, cut into 1/4-inch-thick slices

- 1 cup cooked couscous mixed with 2 tablespoons Italian dressing or prepared pesto
- 8 slices fresh mozzarella cheese
- Fresh basil leaves
- Parsley for garnish (optional)
- Balsamic vinegar

Spray with nonstick spray, or lightly wipe oil in the interior of the four cans. Set each can on end on a salad plate.

Trim the tomato and cheese slices to fit the interior of a can, then stack the individual portions in layers inside the can as follows: a tomato slice, 2 tablespoons of the couscous mixture, and a cheese slice. Repeat.

Cover with plastic wrap and press down on the stack gently with a jar or can that is slightly smaller than the opening of the can.

Remove wrap and slowly lift the can to reveal the layered salad. To serve, garnish with a fresh basil leaf or a sprig of parsley. Drizzle balsamic vinegar to taste.

National Start Over Day

June 5th

— National Day Calendar —

Today is June 5 on the National Day Calendar and it's National Start Over Day intended to remind you it's perfectly fine to start over! Today's National Day is about making the decision to accept failure and start over, from scratch.

#NationalStartOverDay

Do you remember that old saying "if at first you don't succeed, then try, try again?" All of us seem to have heard it one time or another in our life. We can all agree it has been used to inspire us to never give up and keep trying. Today, we want to remind everyone despite any setbacks you may have, don't give up! Keep going, even if that means starting over.

What is failure? In a nutshell, failure is when a person does not succeed or has not met expectations of a specific situation, goal, or task. Failure means different things to different people, which is why our ideas about failure differ. Even though society plays a significant role in what we think should be success, the idea of failure comes from our own personal beliefs.

Adults view failure differently than children do, but the end result is always the same: failure is discouraging.

6 Adult Ideas of Failure

- Receiving a bad work performance review.
- Forgetting a special occasion.
- Getting terminated from a job.
- Misspending or losing money.
- Missing an important appointment.
- Breaking a family heirloom.

6 Childhood Ideas of Failure

- Getting a bad grade on a test.
- Putting off or avoiding chores.
- Breaking rules set by parents/guardians.
- Arguing with a grownup.
- Bickering with siblings.
- Not making the team.

Failing should not be the end. In fact, we think you should use failure as a way to grow, learn, and start again. Most people analyze failure after it happens. You think of all the things that could have been and find a solution to make it better the next time around. Each time you fail, you create solutions and learn benefits of doing things differently. Your solutions give you opportunity to start over and keep going.

Why is failing important? Failing is important because it allows you to give something another try.

Trust the process of what you learn along the failure journey, change a few things, and start from scratch to make it a success. Don't be discouraged. Some people may have to make several attempts to reach their goal. Taking another chance and starting over teaches you determination. Just know starting over can and will cause some anxiety. Do not be afraid to keep going. Starting over means a new beginning and a new adventure. You can do it!

6 Ways to Change Failure Into Success

- Changing your mindset after failure by determining why you failed and then turning the failure into a teaching tool.
- Failing does not mean you are a failure. It means you've been given opportunity to fix mistakes that will help you succeed when you decide to try again.
- Learning your own beliefs about failure without comparing them to other expectations will help you focus on doing what is right for you.
- Committing yourself to achieve success after failure will boost your confidence about your personal abilities, goals, and expectations.
- Correcting key mistakes when you start over will prevent the same mistakes from happening. This will require you to think about where things went wrong and having plan to not repeat those mistakes.
- Starting over requires new goals. This means you might have to self-reflect before trying again. Slow down, think things through, and organize your thoughts. Once you do this, the path to success will be easier than previously.

CELEBRATE NATIONAL START OVER DAY

- Make a plan to restart something you failed at before and DO IT!
- Share your failures with your peers to help find ways to make things successful when they start over.

Fresh, Filling Springtime Salads

— Family Features —

When the crisp air of spring tickles your face and sunrays splash you with warmth, you know salad season has arrived. With fresh flavors abounding this season, the options are nearly endless – just choose your favorite base, toppings and dressings and you're set with a delicious first course or hearty meal all on its own.

Not every salad requires leafy greens for the base, however. Consider this Greek Beet and Watermelon Rice Salad, a Greek-inspired Jasmine rice dish loaded with fresh, tangy flavors that are sure to please your taste buds. Made with Success Boil-in-Bag Jasmine Rice that cooks up soft and fluffy every time, this recipe offers a hint of floral, sweet flavor to keep you feeling full. In just 10 minutes, you can have sweetly aromatic Jasmine rice that's perfect for your lifestyle needs – it's naturally gluten free, non-GMO Project Verified and free of MSG and preservatives.

Fruit salad may be nothing new, particularly when using fruits like oranges, cherries or grapes, but watermelon may be the fun new spin you need at your next cookout. The pairing of sweet watermelon, tangy feta cheese, refreshing mint, earthy beets, nuts and fluffy rice offers a winning combination. Quick tip: Make sure the rice is fully cooled after cooking to avoid a warm, watery result.

Fresh herbs, tomatoes, corn, basmati rice and a simple vinaigrette make Spring Corn and Rice Salad another delicious seasonal side that's ready in just 15 minutes. Step out of your salad comfort zone with this refreshing solution that makes it easy to add veggies to your diet. When you're drawing up weekly meal plans and tired of relying on traditional lettuce-based salads, consider rice salads as an alternative for enjoying chopped vegetables – plus, hearty rice can help keep you full longer.

Better yet, you can make this rice salad your own by experimenting with the ingredients. Try adding shredded chicken, hard-boiled eggs, fresh mango, ground cumin, fresh grated ginger, grilled corn or any other springtime flavors.

Remember, high quality doesn't have to be high maintenance. Aromatic, premium long-grain Success Boil-in-Bag Basmati Rice is a no measure, no mess option that cooks up perfectly every time. Aside from being naturally gluten free, it's also free of preservatives and MSG and is non-GMO Project Verified. It's no stranger to versatility either – in 10 minutes, you can enjoy basmati rice's subtle, nutty flavor and unique texture alongside other warm-weather favorites.

Beer Bottles

For many people, a cold beer on a warm evening is a favorite summer indulgence. But if you look back far enough in history, beer wasn't an indulgence; it was part of a healthy diet. There are written records of beer brewing from as early as 5,000 years ago.

Before reliable sanitation systems, beer was safer to drink than water; in addition to the antiseptic properties of alcohol, brewing beer requires boiling the water. Beer was also considered a source of nourishing starches. Like bread, it is made from grains and yeast.

In fact, beer is sometimes called "Liquid Bread," as seen on this Anheuser-Busch bottle from about 1890. It isn't just any malt drink; the label states that "Combining the most palatable qualities of a refreshing drink with the invigorating and wholesome properties of the finest malt tonics, thus presenting a desirable beverage, suitable alike to invalids and persons in perfect health."

David Nicholson, a St. Louis physician, created Liquid Bread to be bottled by Anheuser-Busch. It had a very low alcohol content, 1.9%, making it, at least at the time, appropriate for "nursing mothers," "children naturally feeble," "convalescents suffering from malnutrition," and even "ladies of the most fastidious palates," according to advertisements.

Today, the nutritional value of the drink pales in comparison to the collectible, not to mention the monetary value of its cobalt blue bottle. This one, with its label intact, sold for $1,440 at Potter & Potter Auctions, more than quadrupling its high estimate of $300.

Beer or health food? "Liquid Bread" sold by Anheuser-Busch in the 19th century promised both. Collectors prize the bottles with intact labels.

repaired food service and medical scales. The company was acquired by another scale manufacturer in the 1980s. It is still in business today as Detecto and makes many types of scales, mostly digital, for home and industrial use.

There are several varieties of the Detecto-Lette, including a version with an enamel coating and one with a wicker basket for a scale pan. There are collectors who specialize in antique scales, and antique or vintage baby scales are also sought as decorations for nurseries. For more information about yours, you may want to contact a collectors' club like the International Society of Antique Scale Collectors (isasc.org).

TIP: A paper beer bottle label reacts to wet and dry like hair does. If the label is curled, cover it with water to wet the fibers, then dry it flat.

Pets of the Week: Tamarack and Larry

— Priest River Animal Rescue —

Good news: thanks to Cheri's generous sponsorship, Tamarack's adoption fee is waived for an approved home. Meet Tamarack, a playful young dog with big energy, big curiosity, and a gift for turning ordinary days into adventures. At the Rescue, he's coming out of his shell, growing more confident, and showing off his joyful personality every day. Now he's ready for the best plot twist yet: a loving home. If you're looking for a resilient, happy-hearted sidekick with charm, comic relief, and plenty of tail-wagging enthusiasm, Tamarack may just be your guy.

Meet Larry, a handsome black cat with a few white belly hairs and serious "mysterious gentleman" energy. Larry prefers slow introductions—he's more "please submit your friendship application" than "jump into your lap on day one." But once he feels safe, he warms up beautifully and enjoys pets, affection, and quality time with his feline friends. He loves other cats and can often be found snuggling with his siblings in the Sunshine Room. Larry is looking for a patient, loving home where he can settle in at his own pace and let his super sweet personality quietly steal the spotlight.

Pets of the Week: Boeing and Lebowski

— Luke's Legacy —

BOEING is a handsome 3-4 year old Boxer/German Shepherd mix with the cutest oversized ears — honestly, it looks like he can pick up radio and TV stations with them! One of his favorite things? Being sung to. This sweet boy absolutely melts when people sing to him. Boeing is the perfect car companion, happily sitting quietly while taking in the sights out the window. He's wonderful with other dogs, loves people, and has the kindest, most soulful eyes. He enjoys playing with the other dogs in rescue and is already house trained, making him an easy addition to a home. It's clear someone loved Boeing at one time and spent time working with him. Why he ended up unclaimed in a shelter after arriving there on January 13 is truly a mystery. Despite everything, he remains loving, gentle, and eager to bond with his people.

Lebowski is settling into rescue life after struggling in the stressful shelter environment. Like many dogs, the constant noise and confinement caused him to become barrier reactive in his kennel — a behavior that often comes from frustration and stress, not aggression. Once out of that environment, Lebowski has shown us what a sweet and sensitive soul he really is. We believe Lebowski is around 7-8 years old and appears to be a Golden Retriever/Labrador Retriever mix. As he continues to decompress, his gentle personality is shining through more every day. He absolutely loves ear rubs, affection, and quiet companionship. Lebowski is a very sweet boy, but he can be uneasy when startled by unfamiliar people or unexpected situations. Because of this, he would do best in a calm, predictable home with routine and structure. A quieter household with an older person or couple would likely be the perfect fit for him. This handsome senior deserves a soft place to land where he can finally relax, feel safe, and be loved for the rest of his days.

Pets of the Week: Sheldon and Zara

— Hope's Haven Animal Shelter —

Meet Sheldon! This lovely boy is 10 months old and a massive sweetheart to all people. He loves to play and climb onto people for cuddles and pets. He does well with other cats, but takes some time to warm up to them. However, he can be a little intimidated by dogs. You might also notice the kink in his tail, but don't worry! He simply grew that way. He'll make for a great lap cat and companion.

Meet Zara! This sweet girl is 2 years old and loves to run and play. She's affectionate to everyone so much that she gets a big smile on her face and does a happy little dance whenever she sees us! She does well with other dogs as long they respect her space. She is curious about cats and has not tried to go after them. She can sometimes get too excited and try to jump on people and may try to pull while on a leash, but she is getting better everyday.

Hope's Haven Animal Shelter (Benewah Humane Society) is open Monday-Saturday, noon-4pm. Come into Hope's Haven to visit and view our animals or check them out first on our website. Give us a call for more information today!

Pets of the Week: Betty Boop and Louise

— Second Chance Pet Rescue —

Hello North Idaho! My name is Betty Boop and I am a 2-year-old 16 lb spayed female Peekapom! I was rescued from a overcrowded shelter after being taken into custody from a hoarding situation. My friends have all found homes and I'm the last one left. I'm a sweet girl, a little on the shy side very well socialized with other dogs and love all people.

Hello everybody, my name is Louise! I am a 3-year-old spayed female Havenese/Poodle mix. I weigh 12 lb and have a very minimally shedding silky coat. I will require professional grooming as it does grow very long and gets matted quickly. I am housebroke and excellent with other dogs. I came in to rescue from a shelter in southern Utah with my big "sister" Thelma. Our foster mom has tried diligently to find a home that will take us both and it's looking like that's not going to happen so I'm up for grabs! Do you have a wonderful home for me?

Please email Idahocoondog@yahoo.com or search for Second Chance Pet Rescue, Hayden ID on www.petfinder.com for more info and an adoption application.

Pets of the Week: Kyra and Ninja

— Better Together Animal Alliance —

Meet Kyra, a 5-year-old, 65-pound bundle of energy, love and loyalty looking for a new loving home! Kyra is playful, sweet, and always ready for adventure. Whether it's a game of fetch in the yard or splashing around in the water, this girl is happiest when she's active and spending time with her people. She absolutely loves swimming and would make the perfect companion for someone who enjoys the outdoors. She's also crate trained and settles in well with structure and routine. Kyra forms strong bonds with her family and has a naturally protective nature, making her a devoted companion who loves hard and stays close. Because of her energetic personality, Kyra would do best in a home with older children who can comfortably match her enthusiasm and play style. She can do well with other dogs, especially those her size, but she benefits from slow, thoughtful introductions to help her feel comfortable. Kyra is looking for an active home that will give her plenty of exercise, love, and opportunities to play. In return, she'll give endless affection, loyalty, and fun-filled days.

Meet Ninja! Pay his name no heed; this six-year-old gentleman is hard to miss. With that glossy, black coat and those striking yellow eyes, he's a catch and a half, and with a lovely personality to boot. He mostly hunkers down somewhere and snoozes with his feline friends, but when he feels comfortable, he's said to be quite the lap cat---even talking to his person to let them know he wants cuddles. Other dogs may not be a good pairing with him, as he's used to them but not fond of them. If a grounded presence with the added bonus of snuggles sounds like what you need, come pay Ninja a visit!

DEAR DR. ROACH: I have bad knee arthritis. My doctor is suggesting a genicular nerve block. Is this a good idea? Will it fix the problem? -- P.O.V.

ANSWER: Chronic knee pain from osteoarthritis is a common problem in middle-aged and older adults. Before a person receives treatment, the diagnosis should be confirmed by an X-ray. First-line treatments are exercise and anti-inflammatory drugs, like naproxen (orally) or diclofenac (topically).

When first-line treatments are ineffective, there are other options. Knee injections with steroids have long been used, but recent studies cast doubt on their effectiveness and raise concern for damage to the knee cartilage. Hyaluronic acid and plasma-rich platelet injections have been shown in recent trials to only be slightly better than saline injections, and they are much more expensive. Duloxetine, an antidepressant that has pain-relieving properties, is effective for some people but not for everyone.

Before considering knee-replacement surgery, a nerve block or ablation of the nerves that carry pain information (there are three genicular nerves) can be attempted when an expert is available. There is significant pain relief from this procedure, although the benefit is greatest within a few weeks and generally lessens after three to four months. About half of the people who got the procedure report being "much improved" or "very much improved" afterward. It's generally safe with a low risk of side effects, and it can be repeated.

DEAR DR. ROACH: I am 81 years old and have been diagnosed by my ophthalmologist with age-related macular degeneration (the dry type). I was advised to start taking the AREDS2 eye vitamin and mineral supplement. Shortly afterward, I came across a magazine advertisement for AREDS2, which included a disclaimer from the Food and Drug Administration (in fine print, ironically) stating that the product is "not intended to diagnose, treat, cure or prevent any disease."

I'm confused. If the over-the-counter mineral supplement doesn't do any of this, then of what value is it, and why take it? The disclaimer was easy to overlook and nearly impossible to read. -- E.D.

ANSWER: You are very wise to look at the disclaimer, and I appreciate your asking me. The FDA requires this disclaimer on all supplements, even ones with strong evidence that supports them. I often refer readers to this disclaimer when I'm trying to give them a realistic expectation of the benefit that a person can get from a supplement.

In this particular case, however, there is strong evidence that the AREDS and AREDS2 formulations of over-the-counter supplemental vitamins and minerals do slow the progression of dry-type AMD. I agree with your ophthalmologist that it's worthwhile for you to take this formulation. I recommend the AREDS2 formulation for current or former smokers, as the beta-carotene in the original AREDS formulation was associated with an increase in lung cancer risk.

I do want to emphasize that you should only take these supplements when your eye professional recommends them. They aren't of proven benefit in people who don't have AMD, nor in people with very early AMD.

There are mixed data about prostate cancer risk with vitamin E, which is in both the AREDS and AREDS2 formulations. The AREDS trials didn't show any increased risk of prostate cancer with these formulations, but a 2011 trial did show a small increase in prostate cancer with the same dose of vitamin E that was used in the AREDS trials. Other studies have shown both small protection and no change in risk.

Still, because there's a potential for risk, the AREDS supplements should only be taken when prescribed by your regular doctor or eye doctor.

World Caring Day June 7th

— National Day Calendar —

Each year on June 7, World Caring Day shines a spotlight on all the ways we connect and show each other how much we care. After all, we should always take time to celebrate the millions of acts of caring we see.

#WorldCaringDay

All acts of caring, whether big or small, are important. Caring is continuous and happens every day through compassion, support, kindness and understanding. In a world of many worries, one of the easiest ways to show love is by caring. We all experience times of crisis, illness or need.

Sharing our journeys and becoming a part of a beautiful story in a segmented, cynical world recognizes and celebrates the people who care. When we take the time to notice, we see patience, understanding, kindness and encouragement from everyone around us.

We want to use World Caring Day as a way to remind others to take the opportunity and practice caring for one another. Now more than ever, we need to lean into caring for one another. Using this day as an opportunity to share compassion and shows genuine love as a blessing to ourselves and others. By sincerely asking how someone's day went will show that you care. This simple act will improve that person's overall well-being.

Caring Around the World

Celebrating everyone as they share stories of caring recognizes and honors both those who care, and those who are cared for. On June 7th, we encourage everyone to rededicate themselves to recognizing, sharing and participating in acts of caring by:

Asking how someone is doing with intent and meaning. Asking someone how they are to find out what is going on in their lives shows you care.

Being mindful of the needs of others. Being alert and sensitive to what triggers your loved ones can help them navigate the shifts in their mood.

Reconnecting online to catch up with your friends and family living far away or with those you haven't spoken to in a long time reopens relationships.

Making time for your loved ones. We know everyone gets busy but don't become a stranger to your friends and family.

Writing a note. You'll be surprised by how big of an impact little notes of encouragement can have on the mood and well-being of others.

Sharing your story! Head over to www.worldcaringday.org and share your story of caring for a loved one through a challenging health journey. You can also read stories of others to feel inspired.

Joining the conversation by spreading the word. Sharing acts of kindness will boost the World Caring Day, especially when you use #WorldCaringDay on social media.

HISTORY OF WORLD CARING DAY

Inspiration for World Caring Day began on June 7, 1997, with the nine-day life of a baby named Brighid. After being born prematurely, software engineer Sona Mehring created the first CaringBridge website. Thanks to Sona, friends and family were able to receive updates on baby Brighid's health online. Most importantly, the website provided necessities and comfort to Brighid and her family. Since social media platforms were non-existent at the time, the idea to create a website was revolutionary.

This simple act of caring triggered a domino effect, resulting in a global network known as CaringBridge. The non-profit organization is dedicated to connecting family and friends with their loved ones during a health journey. The organization helps to provide care, comfort and unwavering support to families. Since 2021, an estimated 45 million people from all around the world visited CaringBridge. Over 1,900 messages of hope, care and love are posted every hour on the CaringBridge portals for loved ones.

In 2022, the Register at National Day Calendar officially proclaimed World Caring Day to be observed on June 7, annually. CaringBridge and National Day Calendar invites everyone to inspire others through stories of hope and care. Celebrate today by recognizing and thanking those who go the extra mile to show they care. You can read inspirational stories, including baby Brighid's, by visiting www.worldcaringday.org.

Statewide Trout Stocking Highlights for June 2026

— Idaho Fish and Game —

Approximately 243,000 catchable-sized rainbow trout will be stocked throughout the state this June.

Many of Idaho's lakes and ponds are soon going to be bolstered with Idaho Fish and Game stocking over 243,000 catchable-sized rainbow trout this June. Wondering if the stocking trucks are going to be backing up to your favorite fishing hole? We asked our Fish and Game hatchery staff to boil down some of the most notable stocking highlights coming to your local fishery this month.

Fishing for stocked rainbow trout can be a great way to introduce budding anglers to the sport by using simple, inexpensive setups. Many of these fisheries highlighted below are easy to access, family-friendly fishing destinations. All you need to get started is a fishing license, and youth (under 14) fish for free. If you need a license, purchasing one on the fly is easy to do with your smartphone—and you can start fishing immediately!

Panhandle Region

Day Rock Pond – 600 Rainbow Trout. This is a small pond in the Silver Valley where anglers can easily fish from the shore.

Elsie Lake – 810 Rainbow Trout. Offering excellent fishing for anglers of all levels, you will also find a beautiful setting. It's a drive-to mountain lake but the road is mountainous and rough.

Fernan Lake – 5,200 Rainbow Trout. A popular fishing spot 10-minutes from downtown Coeur d'Alene, anglers of all abilities can enjoy fishing from floating docks, miles of shoreline, or from boats.

Gene Day Pond – 1,500 Rainbow Trout. Also known as Osburn Pond, this water is stocked regularly so catch rates should be good!

Clearwater Region

Deer Creek Reservoir – 3,000 Rainbow Trout. This beautiful mountain reservoir was built specifically for trout fishing. Rainbow trout are stocked in this remote setting for high catch rates from shore or a boat. Boaters, please observe the no-wake restriction.

Deyo Reservoir – 5,000 Nestled amid farms and timber, this waterbody provides a great family fishing experience. A maintained trail surrounding the entire reservoir features seven fishing docks and two large fishing peninsulas, making it easy to find a good place to fish. There is also a developed boat ramp, picnic shelter, benches, and two handicap-accessible docks.

Elk Creek Reservoir – 6,000 Rainbow Trout. A forested road parallels the entire west side of this reservoir for easy access to fishing areas, with four fishing docks and a boat ramp. The east side of the reservoir provides great boat fishing opportunities where foot access is difficult.

Fenn Pond – 1,000 Rainbow Trout. If you visit the Selway River and are just looking for a good place to harvest some rainbows for dinner, check out this pond. It's located next to the Selway River and offers especially good fishing. The boardwalk and fishing dock offer easy access.

Karolyn's Pond – 1,000 Rainbow Trout. Located at the Clearwater Hatchery's satellite facility on the Red River, this is a pretty pond with grassy banks and a dock for fishing. It's small enough that an angler can cast to any part of the pond from shore. There is a Forest Service campground a bit further up Red River Road, so make it an overnight camping trip!

Kiwanis Park Pond – 450 Rainbow Trout. This convenient community pond is located next to the Snake River in Lewiston and is within walking distance of picnic shelters and a playground. The pond is stocked with rainbow trout to maintain high catch rates for anglers.

Moose Creek Reservoir – 3,000 Rainbow Trout. A shallow lake in rolling timbered hills on Idaho's Birding Trail, this reservoir is ideal for kayaks and float tubes. A trail surrounds the lake and nine fishing docks provide good shore fishing opportunities. Gas motors are not allowed.

Spring Valley Reservoir – 4,000 Rainbow Trout. Surrounded by rolling hills and trees, there is also a trail that surrounds the reservoir. In addition, fishing docks and platforms increase shoreline access. Gas motors are not allowed. This is Stop 35 on the Idaho Birding Trail!

White Sands Pond – 800 Rainbow Trout. Also known as Powell Pond, it's located adjacent to the scenic Lochsa River just a short distance off Highway 12.

Winchester Lake – 6,000 Rainbow Trout. Located in a beautiful, forested setting, this lake offers very easy access. Docks and fishing platforms enhance fishing opportunities for beginners and accomplished anglers. Facilities include a picnic shelter, fish cleaning station, benches and picnic tables, and a variety of camping options.

National Doughnut Day

First Friday in June

— National Day Calendar —

Each year on the first Friday in June, people participate in National Doughnut (Donut) Day. This food holiday celebrates the delicious doughnut and honors the Salvation Army Lassies. In case you didn't know, the Salvation Army Lassies are the women who served doughnuts to soldiers during WWI.

#NationalDoughnutDay

National Doughnut Day origins begin during WWI, which is also referred to as the First World War. Over 4 million U.S. men and women served during the war, with almost 3 million of those serving overseas. With conflicts taking place in Europe, the Middle East, Asia, Africa and the Pacific, WWI was most difficult for troops fighting on the front lines.

In 1917, a group of women were sent to the front lines in France by The Salvation Army. They were directed to set up field bases near the front lines to try to boost morale among troops. The makeshift "huts" were a place where soldiers could stock up on necessities and get a small break from the fighting. Little did they know The Salvation Army Lassie's would not only boost morale, but make history in the creation of one of the most celebrated food holidays.

The women who were working at the field bases felt they wanted to do more than simply restocking troop supplies. They began making home-cooked food for the troops in hopes the food would give them a small taste of home. It was during this time, the Lassies began handing out a sweet baked treat that would become known as The Salvation Army Doughnut. The story says the doughnuts were cooked inside the helmets of the troops, dubbing them as "dough-boys", which was a standard term used for donut. The Donut Lassies are said to be reason we have National Doughnut Day today!

On this day, many bakeries and coffee shops in the United States offer doughnut deals to their customers.

HOW TO OBSERVE NATIONAL DOUGHNUT DAY

Celebrate the day by enjoying your favorite doughnut. There are many varieties of doughnuts to choose from, too! Whether you prefer glazed or creme-filled, holes, or any number of deliciously made doughnuts, get out there and support your local bakeries. Pick up a dozen to deliver to first responders, a nursing station, or your favorite charity. Use #NationalDonutDay or #NationalDoughnutDay when using social media.

NATIONAL DOUGHNUT DAY HISTORY

The Salvation Army created National Doughnut Day in 1938 to honor the women who served doughnuts to soldiers in World War I. This day began as a fundraiser for Chicago's Salvation Army. The goal of their 1938 fundraiser was to help the needy during the Great Depression.

FWP Opens Applications for $1.8 Million in WHIP Grants

— Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks —

HELENA – The annual application period for FWP's Wildlife Habitat Improvement Program (WHIP) will open May 18th and close on June 19. WHIP is a state-funded grant program for projects that enhance, restore, improve or rehabilitate degraded wildlife habitats across Montana.

Awarded grants can be structured to provide funding for up to five years. Total funding available for 2026 is approximately $1.8 million. Based on stakeholder surveys, FWP expects average grant applications to range from $50,000 to $500,000. Applications up to the maximum of $1.8 million will also be considered. Grant awards are based on eligibility and competitive ranking.

To qualify for funding, projects must:

- create habitat uplift or net conservation gain for species of conservation need or restore, rehabilitate, improve or manage land or water as wildlife or aquatic habitat through habitat improvement or conservation;
- enhance ecologically important wildlife habitats;
- have a reasonable probability of success and accomplishing anticipated or desired outcomes

- through appropriate planning and methodology;
- report on objectives and project progress/completion to allow the department to evaluate overall habitat improvement project outcomes;
- or support activities and employees of the state tribal wildlife programs.
- In addition to the eligibility requirements, the ranking process will award additional points for projects that:
  - include funding commitments from multiple partners;
  - involve effective collaboration across multiple land ownerships (public and private);
  - and include public access.

Starting May 18th, applications can be submitted online at funding.mt.gov and then clicking "FWP Wildlife Habitat Improvement Program Grant Cycle 2026." Applicants new to WebGrants must register prior to accessing the application forms. WHIP applications must be submitted no later than June 19 to be considered for 2026 funding.

FWP plans to hold a webinar for interested applicants in June. For more information about the WHIP Program and grant application instructions, visit the WHIP webpage. If you have questions about applying for a WHIP grant or accessing application forms, contact Andrew Amidon, WHIP coordinator, at andrew.amidon@mt.gov or 406-444-7291.

Takeout Without the Price Tag: Easy Beef Döner at Home

There was a time when takeout meant convenience. Now opening a delivery app feels like checking stock prices. By the time fees, taxes and mystery charges pile on, a family dinner can feel like a luxury purchase.

The good news? Some restaurant favorites are surprisingly easy to re-create at home. Beef döner is one of them.

Döner kebab originated in Turkey and became a beloved street food throughout the Middle East and Europe. Traditionally, seasoned meat is stacked onto a vertical spit, slowly roasted and shaved into thin slices as it cooks (like gyro). It's tucked into warm bread with fresh vegetables and cool, creamy sauces.

The flavors are rich, savory and satisfying, but you don't need special equipment or a trip to a specialty market to bring them home.

This version keeps things simple. Ground beef stands in for the traditional sliced meat, seasoned with warm spices, garlic and a little yogurt for tenderness. It's baked, sliced thin, then quickly crisped in a hot pan or under the broiler for those signature browned edges.

The result tastes like something you'd happily order out, except for one important difference: It costs a fraction of the price.

What makes this meal especially useful is how far it stretches. A couple of pounds of beef can become multiple meals when paired with bread, vegetables and a quick yogurt sauce.

Set everything out and let everyone build their own with warm pita or lavash, döner, lettuce, tomatoes, onions and an overly generous drizzle of sauce.

BEEF DÖNER KEBAB

Yield: 6-8 Servings

Total Time: 2 hours 15 mins.

- 2 pounds ground beef, 85% lean
- 1 large onion, grated and squeezed dry
- 2 or 3 garlic cloves, minced
- 1/4 cup plain Greek yogurt
- 2 teaspoons cumin
- 2 teaspoons coriander
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- 1 teaspoon oregano
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon black pepper

This homemade beef döner delivers big flavor with a clever kitchen shortcut.

For serving: Warm pita, flatbread or tortilla, lettuce, tomatoes, thinly sliced onions, cucumber, yogurt sauce (recipe follows)

Preheat the oven to 375 F. You'll need a sheet pan and lots of parchment paper.

In a large bowl, combine ground beef, onion, garlic, yogurt and spices. Mix thoroughly until smooth and slightly sticky.

Divide the meat mixture into four portions. Working one portion at a time, place the mixture on a sheet of parchment paper. Cover with a second sheet and use your hands or a rolling pin to flatten the meat into a thin rectangle, pressing to remove any air pockets. Starting from the long side, tightly roll the parchment and meat together (like a jellyroll) to form a compact log. Repeat with remaining portions.

Transfer the wrapped logs to a sheet pan and bake for about 20-25 minutes, until cooked through.

Let rest for 10 minutes, remove the parchment, then slice thin. For the best texture, quickly crisp the slices in a hot skillet or under the broiler.

Serve in warm pita or lavash with fresh vegetables and yogurt sauce.

ALMOST TZATZIKI SAUCE

Yield: 1 cup

Total Time: 5 mins.

- 1½ cups plain yogurt
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice (or red wine vinegar)
- 1 garlic clove, finely minced
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon dried herbs or 1 tablespoon fresh herbs (dill, parsley or mint)

1/3 cup cucumber, grated and squeezed dry

Stir together and adjust seasoning to taste. Best made ahead.

A little seasoning, a hot pan and a few simple ingredients can turn an ordinary weeknight dinner into a meal worth gathering around.
