THIS MESSAGE IS FOR ALL Americans, Bible readers. The Final Write. The Gospels are of the knowledge of good and evil tree. The writing style strongly suggests the Lord Satan himself wrote them using a good and evil method. "God" like sayings mingled with deception and "evil" sayings.
The highlighted red lettering suggest they are the words of the red dragon, Satan himself. Per the Lord's instruction to Adam and Eve, I caution the reader not to believe or follow this tree. It is for good reason, "you shall surely die".
Prior to his baptism Jesus was alive. The writings say the "spirit descended on him like a dove". It is twisted deception. It can be determined by what happens next, that death descended on him.
Thereafter He is with Satan in the spirit world. Now, the Lord Satan comes as an identity thief. From there on it is the Lord Satan who is Jesus and Shepherd. Thus, the saying "God is with us". Using his name and likeness to put out his new, but really the same testament, worded perfectly to deceive those fool sheep who he leads to their death. It is with Satan Jesus is told if you be a Son of God jump his angels will save thee. That's not how his story ended, he was killed. It is deception to believe that 2000 years ago Jesus had to die for the sins of many. It's nonsense! He died because he believed and followed the Lord and his knowledge of scripture wasn't good.
You shall surely die. Now hear the Lord's Prayer. "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want" meaning you don't want him for a shepherd! He maketh me lie down in green pastures. Meaning, he kills you! Both Moses and Jesus were hailed as great leaders.
The truth is that God never took either. The Lord took both. Using one more saying,
"I will smite the shepherd and scatter the sheep". It is unlikely Jesus would have said I kill myself and scatter my followers. The truth is that the gospels are not credible as they are a deceiving word.
After he was crucified, Mary is at an empty tomb. Jesus speaks to her from outside.
She doesn't recognize him.
the proclaimed day to worship his unknown birth date. Now, the Lord is clever! Unscram-

ble the letters "Santa" and you get Satan. Next, change the meaning of "Claus" and you get Claws, "Satan Claws".
It is lovely anytime family and friends come together to dine and exchange gifts. As Satan does, he creates a good thing then entangles it with sin and lies. I suggest strongly to move away from the Christmas and Satan Claws thing, but do come together in truth and enjoy. Satan won't like it and that will make it most enjoyable. The Holy Bible provides two messages that one can follow. I have found the Lord's word and "do not go there"! I have found nothing wrong with the tree of life word other than it could use more instruction. It is the Lord's bible and perhaps he withheld some of the words.
The Holy Bible doesn't say what most believe it does. I do lean towards the book being Evil. I base that on a biblical principal, never believe a deceiver even when they tell the truth. As I have proved the Bible I have found it that way.
It is overrun with deceiving writings. I do believe there is a Good God up there. I'm tossed whether or not he has anything to do with the bible.
Outside the bible and within the worlds I have seen some goodness. One stand out thing is an exhausted mother who at the new born baby's slightest whimper God awakens her to care for that baby. I've seen that within animals as well.
It suggests to me a good God who cares for all living things. The worlds are of technology, one cannot live without God. The worlds need a Good God with like minded people. Not, a deceiver, who murders, steals, enslaves and lies. A gamer who uses people for his own pleasure. To know and follow the truth is a good way. There will be some that say I am the Anti-Christ. That's not true, I am the Anti-Satan. I have provided these two writings at great expense. I ask nothing in return. Give them due consideration. The world and the country need a Good God.
The given history of the world says that for the last 2000 years, the world has been deceived. Time to end that! If one cannot fully understand it's likely best not to worship
it. The End. SDJ. Box PP, c/o
the Exchange, PO Box 11813, Spokane WA 99211. (Paid Advertisement)

CBDC= MOB! (Revelation 13:15-17) I always wondered how the 'Mark of the Beast' was going to be enforced on you, the average american individual. Where you cannot buy anything, that goes against Sunday observance. But then recently, the issue of the CBDC has made it possible to enforce every person to comply with the agenda that is in place. Have you never noticed that as soon as Covid 19 pandemic came about, censorship came into play at the very same time? Covid 19 started out as voluntary vaccines, then turned rapidly into mandates. People are easy to control when they are willingly ignorant of the facts. Tim 208-217-8942, text

THIS MESSAGE IS FOR ALL Americans, Bible readers. The bible states "prove you all things". Then lean not unto your understanding. If the reader misses the instructions then it is a long road that will give you a headache and no understanding. Once understood it's quite simple. The Holy Bible begins with the creation of two worlds. Chapter one is God's word upon the earth. His instruction to the reader is The Tree of Life. Take note of the one that carries death penalty, whosoever sheddeth man's blood he will require their life. It can be defined as striking another with intent to do harm causing blood to flow. Both male and female are considered man in this world, the next world created by the Lord God is in the earth and of spirit. It is here the dead go to be with the Lord

who is the son of man, when seen in the bible it means one who does not follow God's instruction or ways. A follower of Man's ways. In this world the Lord is both God and Satan. His world is titled the knowledge of Good and Evil. Both worlds are of technology and are not natural wonders. That is an amazing story in itself. The two worlds have very different Gods. Now, in the garden were two trees. The Tree of Life which is God's instructions. The Tree of the knowledge of good and evil which is the Lord's creation and instruction. Next, follow the instruction to Adam and Eve. They are told by the Lord himself. If they eat of this tree, they will surely die. To eat is to "take in". So, the Lord himself is telling the reader not to take in, believe or follow him in any way or you will surely die. It is for a good reason. Anyone who reads the Bible and cannot define the stories as of a murderer, liar, thief, enslaver, who is a great and terrible, dreadful God with fierce wrath, and follows him is an absolute fool. Thus, God doesn't want those. Since Jesus is the Lords Christ or better worded The Christ of a great and terrible God with fierce wrath! He is not to be followed either, I will use an excerpt from the Gospel "Suffer the little children to come to me as such is the Kingdom of God". I believe the opposite. Keep the children far away with clear instruction. Was Jesus a Son of God? No, if true, he would have lived. He was a son of man, and they followed the same God. Again, sons of God do not die by scripture as they follow God's instruction. Those who follow the Son of man who is God of that world and he does have sons, they are dead yet alive in spirit! The Kingdom of God referred to by Jesus is the pit, lake of fire, hell, spirit world. Perhaps the Lord said it best, no man has ever seen his face and lived! Most Bible readers will know the stories Adam and Eve do eat of the word of the Lord. The Lord put a flaming sword around the Tree of Life, lest they eat of it and live. That sword is the Holy Bible. As a child, my mother did take me to church. I was too little and had no concept or understanding. As a young man I gave it a read and found it to be evil, nonsense! About five years ago I picked it up again with the same findings as earlier. It's been plus three years, I haven't picked up a bible. I over time have considered the writings and lean toward the book being evil. I haven't attended church since childhood nor have I been baptized by any church. I am not a fan of anyone using technology for his or her pleasure. There is a underlying truth. If God doesn't want evil in the world, stop creating it. All evil comes from above. The great mystery of the Bible is that you are not to eat from the Lord's tree, which is most all of the Holy Bible. Read and eat of the tree of life only which is God's word. If anyone wishes to respond, please write Box PP, c/o the Exchange, PO Box 11813, Spokane WA 99211. If it's worthy, I will respond. SDJ (Paid Advertisement)

KOVELS® Antiques & Collecting

By Terry and Kim Kovel

Milk Glass

Glass bottles were expensive packages for alcoholic drinks and other liquids, including many beauty products, by the late 1700s. But makers liked to give products a permanent label, not just a pasted, handwritten or printed paper label. So bottles were made with a thin layer of glass that was heated to cover the label and adhere it to the bottle permanently. Other less decorative bottles were made with the product name captured in the mold.

A label under glass couldn't fall off, get damaged or become illegible, so they were favored by apothecaries, the drug stores of the past. Many of these glass-covered labels were handwritten with the Latin names of medicines using fancy style gold-leafed letters. Glass Works Auctions featured milk glass barber bottles in an auction that included this American circa 1880-1900 barber bottle. It has a shaker top and a label under glass with the name "W.L. Doremus, Bay Rum" surrounding the head of a girl in a colorful bonnet. Highest bid, $222.

Q. I inherited a set of International's "Spring Glory" sterling silver flatware 14 years ago. There are 12 five-piece place settings and several serving pieces. I showed it to a dealer last year who valued it at $1,000. I need to know its current value.

A. International Silver Company made "Spring Glory" flatware from 1942 to 1996. Sterling silver flatware was a popular wedding present years ago. It's not as popular today and, although the price of silver has gone up in the past year, sets of silver are hard to sell. It's important to know if the value you were given is what the dealer thought they could sell the silver for or what they would pay you for it. You can check prices for "Spring Glory" silver flatware prices on silver matching services listed online. Replacements Ltd. lists a five-piece place setting of "Spring Glory" for $210 to $230. Matching services also buy silver flatware but will pay you a percentage of what they sell it for since they have to make a profit.

Q. Why do we say dinner dishes are made of china?

A. The story was part of my junior high school history lessons. Marco Polo brought "china" (a green colored pot) back from his explorations of China in 1260. Europe had Silly as it may seem, milk glass can be one of many colors. It is an opaque glass first used in the 1800s and now prized in collections of barber bottles of the Victorian era. This 10 1/2-inch-high milk glass barber bottle with a colorful label under glass sold for $200.

only heavy pottery dishes, and "china," the porcelain made in China, was lightweight, white, translucent and "fit for a queen." It was one of the things that encouraged the king and queen of Spain to give Christopher Columbus money for his explorations in 1492.

Wolf Trapping Opens In Some Areas Of Occupied Grizzly Bear Habitat

— Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks —

HELENA – Effective immediately, Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is opening wolf trapping season in specific areas of occupied grizzly bear habitat in west, northwest and southcentral Montana due to reduced grizzly bear activity.

The areas of occupied grizzly bear habitat now open include areas in FWP Region 1, elk and deer hunting districts 100, 101, 103, 104 120, 121, 122, 123, and 124. In Region 2, occupied grizzly bear habitat south of Interstate 90, or HDs 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, and 217. The occupied grizzly bear habitat in FWP Region 5 is also open. This includes areas northeast of Yellowstone National Park (See map).

The rest of the occupied grizzly bear habitat in Montana remains closed to wolf trapping due to grizzly bear activity.

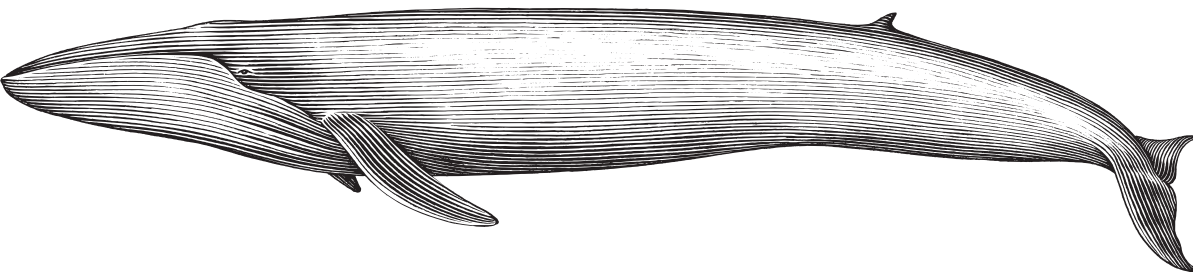

In August, the Montana Fish and Wildlife Commission approved wolf hunting and trapping regulations for the 2022 season, which ends March 15, 2023. The regulations include a floating start date for wolf trapping in occupied grizzly bear habitat. The intent of the floating start date is to avoid conflict with grizzly bears that have yet to den for the winter. Wolf trapping in these areas opens Dec. 31 unless FWP opens it early due to a decline in grizzly bear activity.

FWP makes a decision opening trapping in occupied bear habitat each Monday in December with input from field staff on bear activity.

Wolf trapping is open in all other areas of the state. Hunters and trappers should note that wolf harvest quotas exist in each FWP trapping district and wolf management unit 313. Those harvest quotas can be viewed and followed on the FWP Wolf Dashboard.

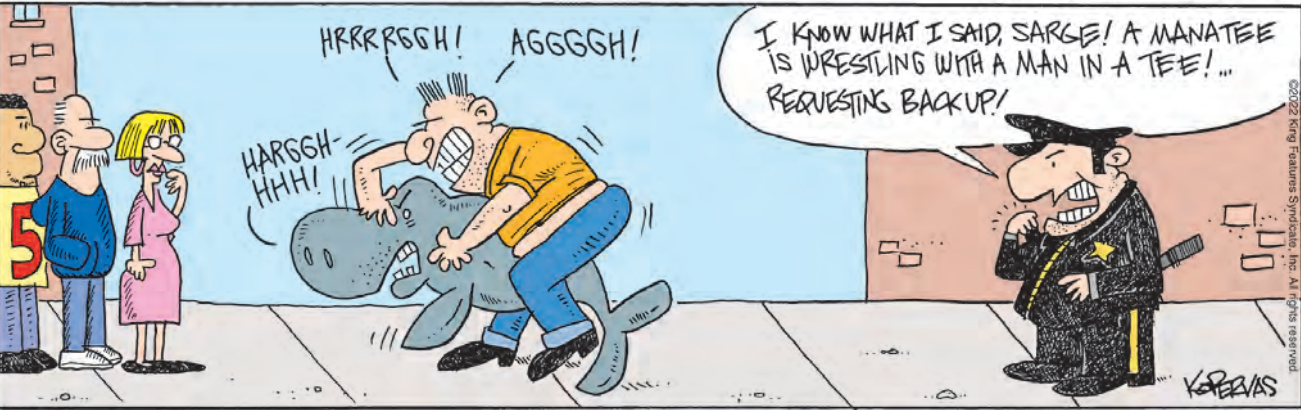

Wolf hunters and trappers should make sure to be familiar with the 2022 Furbearer, Wolf and Trapping Regulations, which include maps of occupied grizzly bear habitat.

Frankincense Boswellia trees exude a healing resin when their bark has been damaged. As this resin hardens, it is collected and sold as frankincense. In response to concerns about the conservation, legislation and trade developments affecting this industry, a Global Frankincense Alliance was formed in 2020 to address the long-term future of frankincense trees and the communities that harvest them.

Bring Leftovers Together in a Meatloaf Mash-Up

Nothing says comfort, security and home like an old-fashioned meal of meatloaf and mashed potatoes. Try this tasty supper with your family, or better yet, invite another family over to enjoy this generous-sized recipe of Outside-Inside Meatloaf.

We call it the all-in-one vegetable/potato/meatloaf because, when you slice the main dish, the kids discover that everything is hidden inside – everything, that is, except the salad and bread, which your guests could bring to complete this fabulous “let’s get together” meal.

It’s also the perfect solution for using Thanksgiving meal leftovers. Extra portions of mashed potatoes, peas and corn are the perfect ingredients to complete this recipe. Even the day-old dinner rolls are useful. They’re all part of the mix.

OUTSIDE-INSIDE MEATLOAF MASH-UP Serves 8

- 2 pounds lean ground beef
- 2 eggs, slightly beaten
- 2 cups fresh or packaged breadcrumbs
- 2 tablespoons tomato paste
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon freshly ground pepper
- 3 cups prepared mashed potatoes
- 1 cup cooked peas or corn

1/2 cup grated cheddar cheese

Ketchup or mustard for drizzling on top

Preheat oven to 350 degrees Fahrenheit. In a large bowl, with very clean hands, let your child thoroughly mix together the meat, eggs, breadcrumbs, tomato paste, Worcestershire sauce and seasonings.

Place mix on a large sheet of parchment or wax paper and form a 9-inch-by-12-inch rectangle. Use a rolling pin to make it even and smooth.

Spread the potatoes over the meat with a spatula, leaving a 1-inch border all around. Top with vegetables and cheese.

With adult assistance, your child can roll up the large meatloaf lengthwise, lifting up the paper to get it started. Remove paper and place the meatloaf seam-side down on a foil-lined baking pan. Pat it together firmly, pinch ends closed and drizzle ketchup or mustard on top.

Bake uncovered for 1 to 1-1/4 hours, or until completely done. Remove from oven and let rest for 10 minutes before transferring to a large serving platter for slicing.

1. What did "Where the Action Is" and "American Bandstand" have in common?
2. Did Gary Puckett & The Union Gap ever have a No. 1 hit single?
3. Who had the most success with "The Tide Is High"?
4. Which artist went on the Who's That Girl World Tour?
5. Name the song that contains these lyrics: "I keep a close watch on this heart of mine, I keep my eyes wide open all the time."

Answers:
1. The television musical programs were both created by Dick Clark, with Clark hosting "Bandstand" from 1956 to 1989. He never appeared on "Action," only doing remote announcing of the bands.
2. Once, but it was in the U.K., when "Young Girl" topped the charts in 1968.
3. Blondie, in 1980. The original was released by the Paragons, in 1967.
4. Madonna, in 1987. Her first was the Virgin Tour in 1985.
5. "I Walk the Line," by Johnny Cash. He penned the song, about marital fidelity and avoiding temptation, in under an hour. It stayed on the charts for 43 weeks and, in 2014, ended up as No. 1 on the list of the 100 greatest country songs of all time.

Greek Pastitsio for a Hearty Family Meal

Food and family -- 2022 has fortunately been filled with both. This Greek Pastitsio recipe reminds me of a special family memory, when my mother first met her great-grandson, Leonidas (Leo) Nicholas. Four generations were represented, and what a feast it was.

Leo's mom, Stefanie Anduri, is first-generation Greek. "I love to cook dishes from my mom's village, Zevgolatio, in the Peloponnesian peninsula," said Stefanie, while stirring the sauce for Pastitsio, a hearty pasta dish. "Preparing food with family is as important as eating the meal. Now, I want to pass the traditions on to our son."

Spin the globe with your kids and land on Greece. Talk about the Acropolis, the Olympics, yogurt and anything else that is Greek to you. Then, prepare Pastitsio and salad.

GREEK PASTITSIO Serves 6-8

- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 medium yellow onion, chopped
- 2 cloves minced garlic
- 1 pound lean ground beef
- 4 ounces tomato sauce
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/8 teaspoon allspice
- 1/8 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- Salt and freshly ground pepper to taste
- 1 pound elbow macaroni
- 5 tablespoons butter
- 4 tablespoons flour
- 4 cups milk
- Salt
- 3 ounces grated Romano cheese (or substitute with Parmesan)

Preheat oven to 350 F. For the meat filling, heat olive oil over medium heat and gently saute the onion and garlic until the onion is soft, about 4 minutes. Add ground beef and cook until brown, crumbling it with a spoon as it cooks. Add tomato sauce, cinnamon, allspice, nutmeg, salt and pepper. Cover and simmer for 15 minutes. Set aside.

Meanwhile, cook the pasta until al dente. Drain.

For the sauce: In a medium saucepan on medium heat, melt the butter. Add the flour and stir until smooth. Cook for a few minutes. Add the milk 1 cup at a time and bring to a boil, whisking continuously until smooth and thick. Season with salt.

Now, it's time to put it all together. Spoon half of the cooked pasta into a 9-by-13-inch baking dish. Cover evenly with half of the sauce, followed by the meat mixture and the remaining pasta.

Drizzle the remaining sauce evenly over the pasta. Top with cheese. Cover with foil and bake 40 minutes. Remove foil and bake an additional 10 minutes, until lightly browned and bubbly. Let stand a few minutes and cut into squares.

Serve with Horiatiki Salata, a Greek salad. Simply combine grape tomatoes, cucumbers cut into chunk shapes, chopped green onions, Kalamata olives and feta cheese. Douse with olive oil, fresh lemon juice, and salt and pepper.

Kali orexi! (Bon appetit!)

Time To Bring Home Some Walleye From Lake Pend Oreille!

— Idaho Fish and Game —

It's time to fish for some walleye, and we've got the information you need to find them

It's early summer, and walleye in Lake Pend Oreille are on the move along the northern shoreline of the lake. The lake water has warmed, walleye are feeding after spawning and fish are becoming more active.

Over the past month fish have moved away from known spawning areas and are beginning to occupying summer habitats. Walleye locations displayed in the map below (or accessible from this link) are from June 1 through 17.

Please note that receivers in the Clark Fork River were not downloaded in June due to high water levels and debris flows coming downstream, making navigation difficult and potentially dangerous. Some of the fish that spawned up the Clark Fork last month have begun redistributing throughout the Clark Fork delta and nearby main lake.

There are still plenty of walleye around the Highway 95 long bridge and the railroad bridge area near Sandpoint. Some of those fish have begun spreading downstream throughout the Pend Oreille River as well as moving eastward along the northern shore of the lake.

The number of fish detected in Kootenai Bay, Oden Bay and Kootenai Point have increased substantially from earlier this spring. Anglers should have plenty of opportunity targeting walleye in these areas now that lake levels are at full summer pool.

The Sunnyside Point to Fisherman's Island area continues to hold a number of walleye as well. Fishing can be great working main lake breaks as well as trolling crawler harnesses or crankbaits over the flats in these bays this time of year.

Please continue to use caution when navigating the Clark Fork River and the rest of the lake as a number of large logs and debris entered the system during recent spring runoff. Anglers can now access Lake Pend Oreille from boat launches around the lake with water levels at full pool and the Clark Fork River starting to come back down.

Biologists track acoustic-tagged walleye to learn more about walleye movements and to help anglers effectively target walleye and participate in the Lake Pend Oreille angler incentive program.

Here is another reminder that there are plenty of $1,000 reward-tagged walleye still swimming in the waters of the Lake Pend Oreille system. Just last month two lucky anglers turned in walleye tagged with $1,000 reward tags! Since April 2019, a total of 18 walleye worth $1,000 each have been turned in and over $35,000 in monthly drawing have been distributed to walleye angler on Lake Pend Oreille!

To learn more about walleye rewards and try your hand at becoming a big winner, check out the Lake Pend Oreille angler incentive program on the Idaho Fish and Game website.

If you're interested in learning more about walleye fishing in Lake Pend Oreille, the angler incentive program and general information about walleye in the lake, Fish and Game has plenty of resources to help.

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

- On Dec. 28, 1900, Mrs. Lulu Jenkins, of Chicago, was paid $4,000 in compensation for the lynching of her husband in Ripley County, Indiana. Mr. Jenkins allegedly was involved in the theft of a horse and ended up the victim of a furious mob. Two other men were killed as well.
- On Dec. 31, 1943, Henry John Deutschendorf, better known to us today as singer-songwriter, actor John Denver, was born. In a four-decade career before his untimely death in an airplane crash, he won worldwide affection and acclaim not just for his music but for his dedication to humanitarian and environmental causes.
- On Jan. 1, 1962, the U.S. Navy SEALs unit was created. Their elite members (only about 20% actually make it that far) are trained to operate in urban, desert and jungle locations and to withstand torture.
- On Dec. 26, 1966, the first Kwanzaa celebrations began in America, with the holiday continuing until Jan. 1. Created by activist, author and professor of Africana studies Dr. Maulana Karenga, the annual event, which affirms African family and social values, was originally intended to replace Christmas for Africans.
- On Dec. 30, 1984, speleologists (cave studiers/ explorers) in the Mexican state of Oaxaca landed upon what was then thought to possibly be the world's deepest cave after going through a maze of underground tunnels in the jungle.
- On Dec. 27, 1994, Rwanda's president died in a plane crash and the African country was plunged into a genocidal blood bath in which the Hutu majority slaughtered the Tutsis, leaving half a million dead. A distraught missionary exclaimed of the carnage: "There are no devils left in hell. They are all in Rwanda."
- On Dec. 29, 2011, Russian authorities discovered a large amount of a rare caviar stored in, of all places, a morgue in St. Petersburg. A businessman and morgue attendant were arrested but claimed that the caviar was being kept for a personal New Year's celebration.

Pets of the Week: Arlene and Jasper — Companions Animal Center —

formerly Kootenai Humane Society

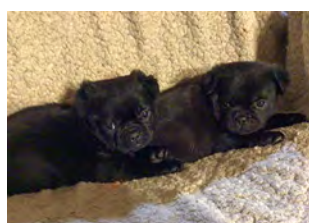

Just look at that smile! Meet Jasper! This 6-year-old Heeler gentleman is prepared for whatever you are planning. Want to take a hike or a walk around the block? How about downtime with a long nap or watching your favorite holiday movie? Let him sit at your feet and walk by your side; he will be your devoted companion. Jasper is neutered, vaccinated, and microchipped.

Arlene is a brilliant conversationalist! And she will explain to you exactly why you should add her to your family. This gorgeous girl adores attention and enjoys playing and exploring. Holiday Gift-Giving for Peanuts

As we run this holiday marathon, it's nice to have the occasional quick win, right? Here are three foodie gifts that are cheaper, easier and faster than baking cookies. Let's make candied nuts!

Nuts are a holiday favorite steeped in tradition. You can't have The Nutcracker without nuts, right? But nuts can be awfully expensive. That's why these recipes were developed using legumes and seeds you can buy for under $2 a pound. Namely, peanuts, sunflower seeds and pepitas.

If price is not a concern, please substitute any nut you'd like in these recipes. However, comparing prices, most nuts (almonds, pecans, walnuts) cost three times the price per pound of the peanuts and seeds we're using. Personally, I'd rather have three times the amount to share for the same price.

SUNFLOWER SEED AND PEPITA BRITTLE

3 tablespoons butter
1/2 teaspoon table salt
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sunflower seeds
1 cup pepitas
2 cups sugar

Line a baking sheet with parchment; set aside.

In a saucepan, melt butter on low heat; add salt, cinnamon and vanilla. Add sunflower seeds and pepitas. Stir to evenly coat seeds with butter mixture. Remove from heat but keep warm.

The next step takes about 25 minutes, so be patient. In a large (12-inch) heavy skillet over medium heat, add sugar. Stirring nearly constantly, you'll see the sugar begin to form clumps. Gradually, the clumps melt and become a smooth, amber syrup. This sugar syrup is liquid napalm, so treat it as such.

When the lumps are gone, add the seed mixture and quickly stir to combine. Immediately pour onto prepared baking sheet. Use a spatula to quickly spread the mixture into a thin, even layer.

Cool completely and break into pieces.

HONEY ROAST PEANUTS

2 tablespoons butter
1/3 cup honey
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
2 teaspoons table salt (divided)
3 cups unsalted peanuts
1/3 cup granulated sugar

Preheat oven to 325 F. Line a baking sheet with parchment.

In a large, microwave-safe bowl, place butter, honey, vanilla, cinnamon and 1 teaspoon salt. Microwave in 20-second increments, stirring each time, until the butter is melted. Once melted, stir until smooth.

Add the peanuts to the honey mixture and stir until well-coated. Place the peanuts on the prepared baking sheet, spreading into an even layer. Bake the peanuts for 20 minutes, stirring every 5 minutes. (Stirring will prevent the peanuts at the edges of the pan from burning before the middle is baked.) When the peanuts are golden brown, remove from the oven and give them one more stir, to break up any clumps. After cooling a couple of minutes, sprinkle with the granulated sugar and remaining 1 teaspoon of salt, and stir again. Cool at room temperature. If they insist on remaining sticky, sprinkle with another tablespoon of sugar.

COCOA-DUSTED PEANUTS

2 cups unsalted peanuts
1 tablespoon coconut oil or butter
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
1/4 cup powdered sugar
1 tablespoon cocoa powder
1/4 teaspoon table salt

Preheat oven to 350 F. Line a baking sheet with parchment.

Place peanuts on the baking sheet and put in oven for 5 to 7 minutes. Meanwhile, in a large, microwave-safe bowl, melt together the coconut oil or butter with vanilla, about 30 seconds. When peanuts are roasted, transfer to bowl with the butter mixture and stir until each one is glossy and coated.

Next, sift together the powdered sugar and cocoa powder. Place the nuts back on the baking sheet, and using a fine mesh strainer, let the sugar and cocoa mixture "snow" all over the nuts. Stir to ensure each nut is generously coated. Place in the oven for 20 minutes, stirring at 5-minute intervals. Allow this to set until cool. If it remains sticky, sprinkle with additional powdered sugar and cocoa.

All recipes should be stored in airtight containers at room temperature. Before gifting peanuts inquire about allergies. My best holiday gifting advice? In a nutshell (sorry), eat them all and don't share them with anyone. It's a marathon, after all.

Christmas Surprise

— Vivian E. Bogardus—

I found a baby reindeer,
and taught him to let me ride.
His back was kinda boney,
but I rode that deer with pride.

Then, when Christmas came around,
I dressed up in Santa clothes.
I rode Rudolf into town,
to show off his big red nose.

People were amazed to see that deer, as he strut his stuff.
They were wildly entertained,
they just could not get enough.

But suddenly he bolted,
and we flew into the sky!
Before I could catch my breath,
I saw my whole life flash by!

The moral of this story,
is believing makes it true.
You can live your fantasy,
it's really all up to you.

Big Game Hunters Should See Good Hunting in 2022 With A Few Exceptions

— Idaho Dept. of Fish & Game —

Mule Deer Hunting

Mule deer hunters could easily see themselves in a half empty/half full dilemma, but for sake of discussion, let's go with half full.

"Overall, things are looking pretty good," Boudreau said. "We're on the upswing of the population cycle."

Hunters harvested 1,277 more mule deer in 2021 than in 2020, an increase of 5.1 percent; however, mule deer harvest numbers across the state were still about 8 percent below the 10-year average (28,463).

Boudreau expects this year's harvest will meet or exceed last year's and the 10-year average.

That's because mild winters mean higher fawn survival and larger herds. About 70 percent of radio-collared mule deer fawns survived their critical first winter this year. The long-term average is about 57 percent.

Fawn survival was also slightly higher than last year, and the last three years have been above or near the long-term average, which translates to a growing mule deer population.

But that doesn't mean every thing is perfect to rebound herds. Boudreau explained winters are critical because that's when the most deer die, but summers with good forage are also important for the growth of individual animals, which improves their hardiness and fitness to produce healthy fawns, and increases antler growth for bucks.

"Every mild winter is a blessing, and every wet summer is a bonus," he said.

Those recent mild winters have been coupled with fairly dry, hot summers, so herd growth may be modest, but Boudreau said he's confident that there will be more deer available for hunters, and the late, wet spring may boost antler growth.

Boudreau added that survival of fawns throughout the state is not uniform depending on the unit where the fawns were collared. Some of the highest survival occurred in Southwest and West Central Idaho, while survival was closer to normal in the Magic Valley and eastern portions of the state.

Boudreau is also concerned with the long-term quality of prime mule deer habitat, particularly large wildfires in recent years that converted sagebrush and bitterbrush habitat – a favorite for mule deer – to grasslands that favor elk. Loss of quality habitat and can slow the recovery of deer herds and make them more susceptible to winter kill over time because deer have less forage to build and maintain fat reserves and survive difficult winters.

But hunters can look forward to the odds of having a larger mule deer harvest working in their favor this fall.

By The Numbers | 2021 Harvest

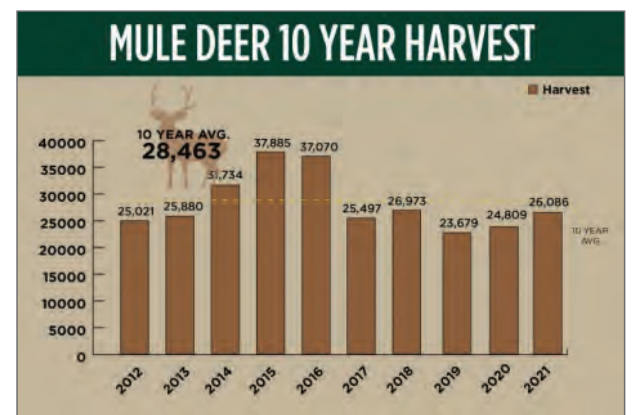

- Total mule deer in 2021: 26,086
- 2020 harvest total: 24,809
- Overall hunter success rate: 36 percent
- Antlered: 21,801
- Antlerless: 4,284
- Taken during general hunts: 19,865 (28.5 percent success rate)
- Taken during controlled hunts: 6,219 (49.8 percent success rate)

How It Stacks Up

As biologists predicted before the 2021 season, the statewide mule deer harvest increased in 2021, but the big story here is the amount of hunters versus the amount of mule deer harvested in 2021.

A total of 79,825 hunters set out for mule deer during the 2021 season – a 9.9 percent decrease from 2020, but 36 percent of those hunters went home with a mule deer, which was significantly higher than in recent years and points to improved hunting that should continue in 2022.

Also, mule deer hunters in 2021 recovered Idaho's top deer harvest after whitetail hunters claimed that spot in 2020. A total of 79,825 mule deer hunters in 2021 harvested 26,086 mule deer. Their 36 percent success rate (general and controlled hunts combined) was the third highest in the last 11 years for mule deer.

Bake a Caramel Flan for a Spectacular Dessert

It's nice to have a globe near the kitchen when your family cooks with an international twist. Spin it round, and then land your finger on the country where your recipe originates.

When you prepare this smooth and rich-tasting caramel flan, a delightful dessert that is a palate pleaser for all ages, you'll be hopping back and forth between two continents. Known primarily in both Mexico and Spain, this custard with a velvety texture, baked in its own clear caramel sauce, is a spectacular dinnertime finale. It's similar to creme brulee, but upside down and lighter.

It's my go-to recipe when I'm asked to bring a dessert to a potluck or family gathering. I make it the day before the event and keep it in its baking dish in the refrigerator. When I arrive, all it takes is a gentle flip onto a large, rimmed plate, and it's ready to serve. Easy, fancy.

CARAMEL FLAN Makes 6-8 servings

- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons water
- 5 eggs
- 1/3 cup sugar
- 1 cup milk
- 1 can (12 ounces) evaporated milk
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- Berries or fruit for garnish (optional)

Preheat oven to 350° F.

For caramel: An adult should moisten 1/2 cup sugar with the water in a small skillet. Bring to a boil over medium-high heat, and cook without stirring until the mixture liquefies and is clear. Reduce heat to medium and continue cooking until syrup turns an even amber color, about 10 minutes. Swirl the pan gently as it continues to cook and syrup becomes dark amber.

At this stage, immediately pour into the bottom of a flat ovenproof bowl or large glass pie pan. I use a 4-cup souffle dish.

For custard: Let kids crack and whisk the eggs in a mixing bowl. Whisk in the sugar, milk, evaporated milk and vanilla until smooth.

Pour the mixture through a fine-mesh strainer into the caramel-coated plate or baking dish.

Place the baking dish in a larger baking pan. Pour very hot (not boiling) water from a kettle into the pan to reach halfway up the sides.

Bake until just set and firm to the touch, about 50-60 minutes. Remove from water bath and cool on a rack. Refrigerate for at least two hours.

To serve, loosen edges of custard with a table knife. Set a large, rimmed plate over the flan and flip it over. Slice and serve with fresh fruit or berries. Spoon melted caramel over each serving.

Follow-up Colonoscopy Necessary After Result of Eight Polyps

DEAR DR. ROACH: I am a 73-year-old male. This year, I had a colonoscopy. They found some small polyps and one larger polyp. All polyps tested negative for cancer. I have had two previous colonoscopies in the past 10 years. Polyps were found in each one. My gastroenterologist said I should have another colonoscopy in one year. There has been no colon cancer in my family.

As you age, is it safe to continue with a colonoscopy? I don't feel safe having one every year. At what age should seniors stop having a colonoscopy? My previous gastroenterologist told me to have one in five years. I do a stool test yearly, given by my primary doctor. – F.Q.

ANSWER: I read your reports, which showed a total of nine polyps, all "sessile" (flat, which is higher risk for development into cancer than those with a stalk), the largest being 8 mm. The pathology report confirmed these as tubular adenomas, none of which had the worrisome finding of high-grade dysplasia.

The official guidelines of the American College of Gastroenterology recommend a follow-up colonoscopy in three years. I definitely agree with that in people who are otherwise healthy. Colon cancer does definitely run in families, but at least 80% of colon cancer occurs in people with no known family history, meaning you can't be complacent even if there isn't any history in your family.

There is no absolute age cut-off for screening colonoscopies: Age 75 might be reasonable in someone who really doesn't want to have another and whose previous results have all been normal, but I would be unlikely to recommend a screening exam in a person older than 85. People who have serious medical conditions outside the intestinal tract get less benefit from screening.

Age 73 is not so old that I would recommend against screening in otherwise healthy people, and given that you have had eight polyps, I definitely recommend a three-year follow-up. I don't know why the gastroenterologist said one year, based on the reports you sent me.

DEAR DR. ROACH: I'm 59 and have a pea-sized osteoma near the top-middle section of my forehead. My grandmother had one in the same place and never got it removed. It grew to be the size of an egg! I want to have mine removed before it gets any larger (it's doubled in size over the past three years). What do you recommend? – J.K.

ANSWER: An osteoid osteoma is a common benign tumor of the bone. They often occur in the thigh or leg, but the forehead is not unusual and, of course, is cosmetically important. Most do not grow and, in fact, more commonly shrink over time.

I've not seen an osteoma get as big as your grandmother's, and I can understand why you would be concerned. It is very reasonable to get an evaluation. An orthopedic surgeon with special expertise in bone tumors is a good person to see, and some plastic surgeons also have expertise in removing bone tumors in such a way as to provide the best cosmetic result.
