FWP Seeks Public Comment On Draft Grizzly Bear Management Plan, EIS

— Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks —

HELENA – Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is seeking public comment on a draft plan and environmental impact statement to guide the long-term management and conservation of grizzly bears across the state.

“For decades, FWP staff have worked with federal, tribal, and local partners, along with communities and landowners, to recover and then manage grizzly bear populations across much of Montana,” said FWP Director Hank Worsech. “This plan will put that experience into action and provide a framework for comprehensive management of grizzly bears in the state and ensure the populations remain sustainable and healthy into the future.”

The plan was informed by existing bear plans and conservation strategies for parts of the state, the federal recovery plan and the work of the Grizzly Bear Advisory Council, appointed under the previous administration in 2019.

The new plan would replace two existing plans – those for western Montana and for southwest Montana – with one statewide plan in which FWP commits to maintaining the long-term viability of grizzly bears while prioritizing human safety. The statewide plan will serve as a framework for the management of grizzly bears now and into the future.

Montana has petitioned the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to delist grizzly bears in the Northern Continental Divide Ecosystem and supports Wyoming's petition to delist grizzly bears in the Greater Yellowstone ecosystem, where they have surpassed recovery goals. Other recovery areas in Montana include the Cabinet-Yaak and Bitterroot ecosystems.

in place will lay out Montana's vision and general framework for management of grizzly bears, whether or not they are listed,” said Director Worsech.

The draft plan will guide management statewide, with particular focus on areas with documented grizzly bear presence, as well as in those places where they are expected to expand. The draft plan addresses how bears will be managed outside of federal recovery zones, including connectivity areas between the zones. The EIS addresses potential environmental impacts of implementing the plan.

To answer questions about the draft plan and EIS, FWP will host a statewide Zoom webinar on Dec. 15th, from 6pm to 8pm. Details on how to join the webinar will be posted on the FWP website closer to that date.

The draft plan and EIS will be open for public comment until Jan. 5th. To review the plan and comment, go online to <https://fwp.mt.gov/aboutfwp/public-comment-opportunities/grizzly-bear-management-plan>. To comment by mail, send to Wildlife Division, Grizzly Bear Plan and EIS, P.O. Box 200701, Helena, MT 59620. Comments can also be emailed to fwplwd@mt.gov.

Once the comment period is concluded, FWP staff will review the comments, make adjustments to the plan and EIS as necessary and then Director Worsech will issue a record of decision, in accordance with the Montana Environmental Policy Act. The department will then present the plan to the Fish and Wildlife Commission for their review and potential endorsement.

For more information, including the draft plan, EIS, supporting documents, and to comment online, please go to <https://fwp.mt.gov/aboutfwp/public-comment-opportunities/grizzly-bear-management-plan>.

Hot Cocoa Boards a Favorite Holiday Trend

You're familiar with charcuterie or cheese boards, right? Well, it's time for brie and crackers to step aside, because beautiful hot chocolate "charcuterie" boards are here.

What I love about the idea is it takes something simple — a cup of hot cocoa — and makes it an event.

These boards can be as simple or as elaborate as you choose. While it's easy to drop a serious chunk of change on upscale cookies and candies, these boards don't have to be expensive to be festive. You can pick up cocoa mix, a bag of marshmallows and a package of assorted cookies for under $10. Then arrange a lovely board. You also can make a board with only marshmallows and whipped cream.

The dollar store is a treasure trove for goodies to make these boards. You'll find seasonal platters, mugs and plates — even cocoa, marshmallows and other fun holiday treats to brighten up your board.

To assemble your abundant board, start with the largest items first, spaced evenly around the board. Odd numbers tend to look best. Be sure you have something to add height and visual interest, like candy canes. Next, arrange the medium-size items, like cookies, looking for contrast in shape, color and texture. Avoid straight lines and go for curves instead. Lastly, fill in any empty space with small items like candies, leaving no bare board.

To add interest, add elements like ribbons, ornaments and mini lights. But don't include anything that's not edible that might look edible to the kiddies (poisettias and holly berries!). That's a recipe for disaster.

What to put on your board? Here are some ideas to get you started: marshmallows, whipped cream, chocolate chips, peppermint sticks and candies, caramels, peanut butter cups, chocolate truffles, any kind of cookies, meringues, gingerbread, brownies, sprinkles, candied ginger, candied orange zest, flavored syrups, ground cinnamon or cinnamon sticks, instant coffee or espresso powder. Be sure to add something salty to balance all that sugar; mixed nuts are perfect.

For the adults, feel free to spice

www.JasonCoblentz.com

Try this chocolate twist on a charcuterie board.

things up with Irish cream, coffee liquor, coconut rum and, of course, peppermint schnapps to mingle cheerfully with chocolate.

The easiest method to make hot chocolate is to purchase cocoa mix at the store. But since the ingredients list of most cocoa mixes includes hydrogenated oils, corn syrup solids and other unpronounceable ingredients, here's an easy and affordable alternative.

EASY DIY HOT CHOCOLATE MIX

With such a small list of ingredients, quality matters. Purchase the best unsweetened cocoa powder you can comfortably afford.

Yield: Just shy of 3 cups of mix or approximately 24 servings of hot cocoa

What You'll Need:

1 cup plus 2 tablespoons unsweetened cocoa powder
1 3/4 cups granulated sugar
1 teaspoon table salt
Whole milk to serve

Here's How:

Sift the cocoa powder (to remove any lumps), sugar and salt into a large bowl. Whisk all ingredients until fully combined. Store in an airtight container.

To serve: Warm 1 cup of your choice of milk (or non-dairy alternative), add 2 tablespoons hot cocoa mix and give it a good stir. To make 8 servings, add 1 cup mix to 8 cups hot milk.

To prepare a quantity of hot cocoa, use your crockpot to heat the milk and keep the finished cocoa warm for hours. A crockpot is less likely to scorch your hot chocolate than the stovetop

So, let's warm up winter with everything you need to customize your next-level cup of cocoa. Is there a better way to share a cup of cheer? I think not.

NEW RELIGION? CLIMATE change is the worship of the creation (nature worship), while rejecting the creator of the earth (Jesus Christ). And Sunday is the worship day of this new religion (?). Now, the people who are loyal to the creator (Jesus Christ) will observe the 7th day Sabbath (Saturday), so show their loyalty to the creator (Ezekiel 20:12,20) Sunday has always been linked to paganism, which is nature worship. It has never been a day of loyalty to Jesus Christ, because no one, in all the Bible, ever observed Sunday, in honor to Jesus Christ. Tim, 208-217-8942 (text only)

- Burned rice? No problem. While it's still hot, carefully remove to a new pot any rice not browned or blackened. Then top it with a single slice of white bread. Allow it to sit for several minutes under a tightly fitted lid. The burned smell is absorbed by the bread, and the rice is fit to eat. – M.U. in Michigan
- Plastic holiday tablecloths can be a festive addition to any family celebration. But what to do if you unpack yours and it's wrinkled? Get those wrinkles out in a hurry with a hair dryer. Set the hair dryer to a low setting, and gently run the warm air over the wrinkles. Smooth and set the table.
- Freshen rugs without the heavy perfume smell of store-bought brands; Simply sprinkle a little baking soda on your carpet and let it sit for about 10 minutes before vacuuming.
- Wrap the lint from your dryer in 6-inch strips of wax paper. Roll it up, twist both ends and you have a perfect firestarter.
- For light and unbelievably fluffy pancakes, try subbing the water in your recipe with club soda. Yummo. – E.S. in Florida
- Add a few drops of water to votive cups before adding a candle. The wax will float on the water, and when the candle burns down, it won't get stuck in the votive glass. – O.J. in Wyoming

Easygoing Spice Blend
Is Great for Goodies and Gifting

Here's a quick recipe for easy home-made gingerbread spice mix, the perfect addition to your holiday repertoire. If pumpkin spice is the flavor of autumn, then gingerbread spice has to be the spice blend of winter. The ingredients are similar, but the balance of the spices yields a completely different result.

Gingerbread spice can replace cinnamon in most recipes and is wonderful added to hot chocolate, coffee or chai tea. If nothing else, sprinkle it with sugar on hot buttered toast.

GINGERBREAD SPICE BLEND

Yield: 1/3 cup
Total Time: 5 minutes
2 tablespoons cinnamon
2 tablespoons ground ginger
1 1/2 teaspoons ground allspice
1 1/2 teaspoons ground nutmeg
1 teaspoon ground cloves
1/4 teaspoon finely ground pepper

Blend all ingredients together. Store in an airtight container. Please note this stuff is potent! Th-th-th that's all folks!

Now, what do we do with all this holiday goodness?

GINGERBREAD CREAM CHEESE

Yield: 1 1/2 cups
Total Time: 5 minutes
8 ounces cream cheese, softened
1/4 cup chopped pecans
1/4 cup raisins or dried cranberries

2 tablespoons crystallized ginger
2 tablespoons maple syrup
1/2 teaspoon gingerbread spice

With a hand mixer, soften cream cheese until fluffy then add remaining ingredients, mixing until incorporated. Schmear on bagels.

SHORTCUT GINGERBREAD SNICKERDOODLE COOKIES

Yield: 16 cookies
Total Time: 30 minutes
1 (16.5 ounce) tube refrigerated sugar cookie dough
1/3 cup molasses
1/4 cup flour
1/4 cup crystallized ginger, diced
2 teaspoons gingerbread spice

Mix cookie dough with molasses, flour, ginger and gingerbread spice. Roll tablespoonful-size balls of dough in cinnamon and place 2 inches apart on parchment-lined baking sheets. Bake at 350 F for 16 to 18 minutes or until set around the edges.

These gingerbread snickerdoodle cookies are a snap to make.

GINGERBREAD PALMIERS

Yield: 36 cookies
Total Time: 45 minutes
1 sheet from a (17.3) ounce package frozen puff pastry, thawed
2 gingersnap cookies, the cheap ones
1/4 cup diced butter
2 tablespoons unsweetened cocoa powder
2 tablespoons crystallized ginger, diced

2 tablespoons granulated sugar + more for topping
2 teaspoons gingerbread spice

Preheat oven to 425 F. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper. Pulse gingersnap cookies, butter, cocoa powder, ginger, sugar and gingerbread spice in a food processor to make a paste. Unfold a sheet of puff pastry and spread the paste on the opened sheet. Fold the two opposite sides of the pastry in to meet in the middle, then fold into the middle again. Sprinkle generously with sugar. Slice crosswise into 1/4-inch pieces. Bake 12 to 14 minutes (pictured).

GINGERBREAD MONKEY BREAD

Yield: 12 servings
Total Time: 1 hour
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1 teaspoon gingerbread spice
2 (7.5 ounce) cans refrigerated biscuits
1 cup brown sugar
3/4 cup butter

Preheat oven to 350 F degrees. Spray a 12-cup Bundt pan with cooking spray.

Mix granulated sugar and gingerbread spice in a zip-top bag. Take refrigerated biscuits, separate biscuits, and cut each into quarters. Place in bag and shake to coat. Arrange biscuits in pan. In a small bowl, melt brown sugar with butter and pour over biscuit pieces. Bake 35 to 45 minutes or until golden brown and cooked through. Cool for 10 minutes, turn upside down onto serving plate and serve warm.

36th Annual Shalena's Breakfast With Santa

— Hauser Lake Volunteer Fire Department —

Breakfast with Santa is BACK in-person in 2022!

Join the Hauser Lake Volunteer Fire Department for this annual community fundraiser which includes a raffle, visits and photos with Santa Claus, and a fantastic breakfast served by the firefighters with help from their families, friends, and 4-H groups.

This year, Shalena's Breakfast with Santa will be Sunday, December 11th from 7am-1pm at the Hauser Lake Fire Station at 10728 N. Hauser Lake Rd., Hauser, Idaho. Come connect with your community and spread some holiday spirit, enjoy a hearty breakfast served up by the Hauser Lake Fire Department (eggs, sausage, pancakes, biscuits and gravy, and more), and try your luck at amazing raffle prizes.

Shalena

Each December, the Hauser Lake Fire Department hosts this fundraising event on the second Sunday in memory of Shalena. Proceeds help a local family with a child who suffers from a serious, often terminal, disease. Proceeds from this year's Breakfast will benefit Jacob, a 17 year old from Genesee, ID with leukemia. Suggested donations are $3 per person or $10 per family.

Jacob

How Breakfast with Santa Started

Each December, the Hauser Lake Fire Department hosts this fundraising event to help a local family in need. John and Betty Mobbs started the event in 1985 when they worked to raise money to help alleviate medical bills and financial distress for the family of a Hauser Lake volunteer firefighter, Gary, whose daughter was diagnosed with cancer.

Shalena lost her battle but her memory lives on with the Breakfast. Shalena's Breakfast With Santa has become an annual tradition within the community of Hauser, Idaho with help from area businesses and North Idaho citizens.

To suggest a family as next year's beneficiary or for questions regarding Breakfast with Santa, email santa@hauserfire.org.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

- In 2020, a lightning bolt extending a total of 477.2 miles spread across Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas, setting a new world record for the longest flash.
 - Rubber bands last longer if you refrigerate them.
 - Rooms at the Null Stern ("zero star") Hotel are situated in repurposed nuclear bunkers and include open-air mountain rooms with equally zero walls. The designers obviously weren't kidding about that rating.
 - In 2002, NASA intern Thad Roberts stole a safe full of moon rocks so he and his girlfriend could have "sex on the moon." Their otherworldly romantic encounter backfired when they later tried to sell the $21 million worth of rocks. Roberts was caught and sentenced to eight years in prison.
 - And speaking of romance: Tinder's not just for humans! Well, not at the Dutch zoo that created a "Tinder for orangutans" to help a female named Samboja find a breeding partner. The primate was shown photos of potential mates from an international breeding program on a tablet, but unfortunately her mother got hold of it ... and smashed it to pieces.
 - Poet W.B. Yeats and magician Aleister Crowley were such bitter rivals in the world of the occult that Yeats once kicked Crowley down a flight of stairs for being a proponent of "black magic."
 - Only humans have chins.
 - In 2012, the police chief of Vaughn, New Mexico, stepped down because his own criminal record prevented him from carrying a gun. That left just a drug-sniffing dog named Nikita as the only certified member of the town's police department.
 - Trained pigeons can tell the difference between paintings by Pablo Picasso and Claude Monet.

Plan Now for the Cost of a New Pet

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: As the holiday season approaches, many people are thinking about adopting or purchasing a pet as a gift. Can you remind readers that the cost of owning a pet can be quite high? Unexpected pet care expenses are one reason that pets wind up at shelters after the holidays. – Carl W., Indianapolis

DEAR CARL: You brought up this issue at the perfect time, as many families start thinking about and committing to getting a pet for Christmas. Potential owners have a lot of things to think about and discuss, and one big item is the cost of owning a pet.

Bringing home a cat or dog from the shelter can cost $1,200 to $1,800, a Geico Living post reports. Adoption fees, the initial vet visit and supplies are part of the upfront costs. Smaller pets like hamsters and goldfish will cost about $200 initially when a tank, cage and supplies are factored in.

Then there's the cost of continuing care. A cat will cost at least $800 per year in litter, food, toys, medical care and more. Dogs can cost $1,500 per year or more, and if a professional trainer is needed, that adds to the cost. And if your pet gets sick, veterinary bills can be quite expensive.

This is not to talk people out of owning a pet, but to make them aware that a pet will impact the household budget more than most new owners expect. Know the upfront cost of a new pet. Budget for the monthly and annual costs of keeping a pet healthy and happy. Minimize financial surprises, and you can focus fully on your pet's well-being.

Pets

Pets of the Week: Peri and Nelly

— Companions Animal Center —
formerly Kootenai Humane Society

Peri is a sweet senior lady looking for a home where she can enjoy her kitty retirement. She is well-mannered, a brilliant conversationalist, and is happiest taking a nap in a cozy spot. If you are looking for just one adorable fur baby, you should meet Peri. Peri is 10-years-old, spayed, vaccinated, and microchipped.

Nelly is an energetic and intelligent girl who likes nothing more than to stretch her legs playing BALL! She would do best in an active family who wants an outgoing and friendly companion - if you can lob a tennis ball, you will have a friend for life! Nelly does well with other respectful dogs but may play hard for smaller dogs. She is a 1-year-old Shepherd mix, spayed, vaccinated, and microchipped.

Public walk-through viewing of the animals is available Tuesday and Thursday from 1-4pm. Adoptions by appointment only. For more information about Kootenai Humane Society becoming Companions Animal Center, visit www.companionsanimalcenter.org.

FREE TO THE RIGHT home. Lucy is now 7 years old. She desires to be the only 4 legged kid in the home. She is half English and half American Field, has had 3 litters of wonderful fox red and yellow pups in the past, spayed 18 months ago. She has spunk but is very low keyed. Housebroken and terrific house manners. Great with kids, and an excellent hunter! I adore Lucy and normally do not rehome a girl at this age but she really wants to be the only kid and I have a bunch here with raising and training Labradors. She is in Heppner for now, the dogs and I are leaving end of December for winter training grounds in California, warmer weather and water for the dogs to swim and play in. www.loveslabradors.net 541-580-5159

Count birds at your feeder

Project FeederWatch is an ongoing research project of the Cornell Lab of Ornithology and Birds Canada. 4,000 people enrolled when this project began in 1987, and it has grown to 20,000 people in the U.S. and Canada collecting data on the birds visiting their feeders. The information is used to learn more about the current distribution and abundance of birds that exist in North America. - Brenda Weaver

KOVELS®

By Terry and Kim Kovel

Antiques & Collecting

Victorian furniture was larger, heavier and usually darker and much more ornate than the mid-century or even modern pieces used today. The houses were large and dark. The electric light was not invented until about 1805, and the candles and oil lamps used for light could only illuminate a small area.

Big carvings could be seen, dark wood covered some of the flaws and wealthy homeowners who bought the expensive furniture had large homes with big rooms, and the furniture was styled to show off the size and wealth.

The best furniture makers and designers in New York favored George Hunzinger, who came from Germany in 1855. He made unusual furniture that had wooden parts that looked like lollipops and plumbing parts. Many chairs folded up. He patented over 20 designs.

Another star was the firm Kimbel and Cabus. These New Yorkers started in 1862. They created modern gothic style, much simpler than the earlier renaissance gothic and an Anglo-Japanese look. They used tiles, painted sections and metal trim.

A third totally different type of furniture was made by Robert Horner in 1886. Walnut wood was scarce, so he used oak or mahogany to make heavy furniture with large carvings of gargoyles and cherubs and trim. Several other furniture makers made similar furniture that collectors may attribute to the wrong maker.

A Cowan auction sold a five-drawer Horner chest of drawers. It had faux bamboo trim on the drawers and a side lock. The bamboo pole at the side is made to slide over part of the drawer to keep the drawers shut and locked. It sold for $1,088.

Q: I love McCoy pottery and for years have had a green McCoy letter holder hanging on the wall near my front door. Is it rare?

A: The McCoy Pottery Company was based in Zanesville, Ohio, and from 1910 to 1990, produced huge numbers of planters, bowls, serving dishes, wall pockets, cookie jars and your letter holder. The pottery is still an inexpensive and colorful collectible. McCoy pottery is very functional, including your letter holder, which is selling for around $45 in antique stores.

Fake bamboo was often used as trim on late Victorian furniture. The trim plus the clever side lock on the chest made this Horner piece worth over $1,000.

CURRENT PRICES

Mouse trap, wire cage, domed top, flat bottom, 10 x 16 inches, $25.

Jewelry, pin, ribbon shaped into heart, arrow pierces through, gold tone metal, seed pearl band, retro, 1950s, 1 inch, $155.

Glass lusters, ruby glass, gilt flower decoration, scalloped edge, teardrop stem, round base, each with 10 long clear glass spear prisms, 13 1/4 x 6 inches, pair, $345.

Sterling silver flatware, carving set, hardwood handle with inlaid silver squares, William Spratling, Taxco, Mexico, c. 1964, knife 13 inches, fork 10 3/4 inches, two pieces, $530.

TIP: Need a quick measurement at an antiques show? A penny is 3/4 inch in diameter; a dollar bill is almost 6 inches long.

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

- On Dec. 23, 1672, Italian astronomer, mathematician and engineer Giovanni Domenico Cassini discovered Rhea (originally christened Sidera Lodoicea), the second-largest of Saturn's 62 moons. In 2010, a spacecraft named for Cassini would detect a thin oxygen atmosphere around it – the first such known outside planet Earth.
- On Dec. 24, 1945, a fire destroyed the home of George and Jennie Sodder and their nine children in Fayetteville, West Virginia. While their parents and four other siblings escaped, no sign of the remaining five children has ever been found, despite decades-long publicity and numerous investigations by both law enforcement and amateur sleuths.
- On Dec. 22, 1956, a baby western gorilla named Colo debuted on the world stage at the Columbus Zoo and Aquarium in Ohio, where she would spend her entire life, becoming the first-ever gorilla born in captivity. Upon her death in 2017, she was also the oldest known gorilla in the world.
- On Dec. 20, 1957, Elvis Presley received his Army draft notice while spending the holiday season at his newly purchased mansion, Graceland. Distraught fans sent thousands of letters to the Army asking for him to be spared, but Elvis himself had no hesitation about entering, though he did receive a deferment that allowed him to finish work on the movie "King Creole."
- On Dec. 21, 2006, rebel monks at the centuries-old Esphigmenou Monastery in Thessaloniki, Greece, took up crowbars and fire extinguishers to repel church-appointed monks with sledgehammers attempting to break in. The rebels vehemently opposed efforts by the Orthodox church to improve relations with the Vatican.
- On Dec. 25, 2013, military defense forces discovered a professionally designed but incomplete 40-meter tunnel connecting Hong Kong to China that included rail tracks, hanging lamps, ventilators and a small transport cart. Authorities believed the tunnel, which cost an estimated $494,000, was created with the intention of smuggling goods into Hong Kong to avoid tariffs.

Responsible Hunters Critical To The Future Of Hunting

— Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks —

Although most hunters respect the land, property, and wildlife they are hunting, a minority do not. Yet these few bad actors lead to frustration from private landowners and hunters looking to do things right.

This year remember: It's up to us. Protect access. Respect the hunt.

Every hunting season, there are reports of vandalizing of Block Management Area (BMA) boxes, hunters driving off road, illegal trespassing, hunters being shot over, littering, and livestock being shot. Below are just a few of the things that hunters and all outdoor enthusiasts should be aware of when enjoying our resources:

- Standing crop: Avoid hunting, walking or driving in fields that have not been harvested yet.
- Littering: Not only is littering careless and unsightly, it is against the law. This includes toilet paper, and the proper management of human waste.
- Leave gates as you find them: If a gate is closed, close it behind you. If it is obviously open (pulled all the way back to the fence), leave it open. If you are unsure, contact the landowner or public land agency.
- Know your target and beyond: Hunters must be sure of what they are shooting at (species, sex, etc.), and know what lies beyond their target (houses, outbuildings, livestock, vehicles, other hunters).
- Prevent fires: Be aware of fire danger at all times and use precautions.
- Be weed free: Check clothes, dogs, ATVs, and vehicles for weeds and weed seeds to help prevent the spread to other private and public lands.
- Avoid driving on muddy roads: Unless it is a well-graveled road, walk.
- Avoid ridge driving and driving to overlooks: Not only is this a poor strategy while hunting, it is considered as driving off road if it is not already an established trail.
- Do not park on roads or gateways: Move well off of roads to avoid folks moving farm equipment. Find a designated parking area or an approach that is clearly not being used for equipment.
- Driving off-road: While hunting on private property, a person may not drive off established roads or trails without landowner permission. Off-road travel on public land, including game retrieval, is prohibited unless designated as open. Consult appropriate land agency or land maps for specifics.
- Ask for permission to hunt: Montana law requires permission for all hunting on private land. Even if the land is not posted, hunters must have permission from the landowner, lessee, or their agent before hunting on private property.

- Completely fill out BMA slips: If a hunter doesn't correctly fill out a block management slip, they are hunting without permission.
- Know where you are located: Whether you are hunting public land, private land, or land enrolled in an access program such as block management, it is every hunter's responsibility to know where they are to avoid trespassing. Maps are always available, as are GPS chips and cell phone apps to aid in orientation.
- Accessing public lands: Access to public lands (on a private road) through private land requires permission of the private landowner, lessee, or their agent.
- Camping: Camping is allowed on most public lands (see agency regulations), but permission is needed to camp on private property and BMAs.
- Know the rules: Consult BMA maps for specific rules on block management property, including driving on roads, parking areas, no shooting zones, walk-in only areas, camping, number of hunters allowed, game retrieval, etc. Rules for most land agencies can be found on maps and/or on brochures. Go to the appropriate agency website or local office for information.
- Report violations: Report any hunting and fishing, trespassing, vandalism or other criminal activity you see to 1-800-TIP-MONT (1-800-847-6668).

The 1-800-TIP-MONT program is a toll-free number where one can report violations of fish, wildlife or park regulations. Callers can remain anonymous and may be eligible for a reward up to $1,000 for providing information that leads to a conviction.

Also remember the fall is a very busy time for landowners. Along with late harvest, cattle and other livestock are being moved from their summer and/or fall pastures and are often brought near the home site for winter feeding and care. Please use common sense and respect when around these activities.

FWP also offers a free online program called The Montana Hunter-Landowner Stewardship Project. This project is an information program for anyone interested in promoting responsible hunter behavior and good hunter-landowner relations in Montana. The program is delivered through an interactive website utilizing questions, videos, and feedback as well as opportunities for you to test your knowledge on a variety of practical topics related to hunter-landowner relations and responsible hunter behavior.

Please go to fwp.mt.gov/education/hunter/hunterLandowner to learn more and complete the program.

GIVE A CHRISTMAS present of art and history. A Browning Superposed Lightning 12 gauge, exceptional condition. This gun was made in 1969, SN:17413 S69, barrels are full choke and modified with length at 28". Price is $2200 due to it's excellent condition. Production of the Superposed began in 1931 and ended in 1986, available afterwards only via the custom shop at Browning. Said of this gun designed by John Browning: "His greatest satisfaction was found conceiving a new shotgun. It wasn't a tool, like his pump-action guns or the A5 auto loader, but an instrument for an expert, in design and function an expression of art produced in steel and wood." Email me if you would like pictures, price is firm and not interested in trades, jeff@perfusion.com
