Forestry Shortcourse Offered In Sandpoint

Wednesday Mornings
June-July, 2023
— University of Idaho Extension —

Many Idaho forest landowners desire a better understanding of how forests grow and how they can better manage their forest property to meet their goals. Furthermore, forest landowners are often required to demonstrate planned, active forest management to qualify for lower forestry property tax rates and cost-share assistance for management activities such as thinning.

This summer, a 6-session program, titled the Forestry Shortcourse, will help enrich forest landowners' understanding of forest ecology, silviculture, forest health, wildlife habitat, and other forestry topics. In the process, participants are coached by natural resource professionals on how to develop a management plan for their forest.

The Forestry Shortcourse will be held Wednesday mornings, 9am to 12pm, June 14th, 21st, 28th and July 5th, 12th, 19th, 2023, at the University of Idaho Sandpoint Organic Agriculture Center, 10881 N. Boyer Road, in Sandpoint. A $38 registration fee includes a large binder of forest stewardship resource materials, including a wooden USB flash drive with over 120 extension publications. To ensure an effective learning environment, the program is limited to 25 people. Those wishing to participate should pre-register by Wednesday, June 9th at the University of Idaho Extension office in Bonner County. Phone: 208-263-8511.

The program is eligible for 7 Idaho pesticide recertification credits. For $120, teachers can also sign up for two University of Idaho credits for the program.

If you have questions on the program, contact Chris Schnepf at 208-292-1288. The Forestry Shortcourse is an Idaho Forest Stewardship program, co-sponsored by University of Idaho Extension, the Idaho Department of Lands, and many other agencies and organizations.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

- At just 15 years old, actor Sylvester Stallone's classmates voted him "most likely to end up in the electric chair."
- One day in 1930, the BBC announced on air that "there is no news," and played piano music.
- Fulmars, a type of seabird, vomit putrid fishy oil on predatory birds in self-defense, which not only smells awful but is lethal to the attackers, as it permanently glues their feathers together.
- If viewed from space or a high altitude, the sun appears to be white.
- Larry Lemieux, a Canadian sailor at the 1988 Olympics, was about to win a silver medal when he abandoned the race to save two other competitors whose boat had capsized. While he lost the silver medal, he was given the Pierre de Coubertin medal for sportsmanship.
- A hydrangea flower's color is determined by the relative acidity of the soil in which it's grown: Acidic soil will produce a blue flower, while alkaline soil will yield a pink blossom.
- The Sami people of Northern Finland have a unit of measurement called the "poronkusema"– the distance a reindeer can walk before it needs to urinate.
- Had a solar eruption happened nine days earlier than it did in 2012, the Earth would have been hit by a massive solar storm that would likely have caused major X-ray and UV radiation and power failure over the planet. It also would likely have cost trillions of dollars and taken four to 10 years to recover from. Timing really is everything!
- The hotel that inspired Stephen King to write "The Shining" plays the Stanley Kubrick film of the same name on a continuous loop on channel 42 for guests.

Thought for the Day: "Great opportunities to help others seldom come, but small ones surround us every day." – Sally Koch

Together for Good Now Accepting Photos from Across Our Region
— Innovia Foundation —

Spokane, Wash. – Innovia Foundation is excited to announce the opening of the fourth annual Photo Contest: Together for Good. We believe we all have something to contribute to the place we call home. In our work, we are joining together for good. We invite local photographers to join us in this effort by submitting images that showcase the unique identity and spirit of our communities.

Free and open to photographers of all skill levels, participants can submit photographs to the following six categories: People, Landscape/Wildlife, Arts and Culture, Community, Nonprofit Mission in Action, and Youth (open to photographers ages 0-17). Photographs must be taken within Innovia Foundation's 20-county service area and submitted by Friday, June 2.

To benefit the inspiring nonprofit organizations serving our region, the first-place overall photographer will receive a $1,000 grant awarded to their favorite 501(c)3 organization, a canvas print of their photograph and a feature on our website. Winners in each individual category will receive a $200 grant awarded to a nonprofit of their choice, a canvas print, and showcasing on our website.

A full list of contest awards, rules and instructions for submission can be found at innovia.org/photo-contest. Any questions about the contest can be directed to Rachel Quick at rquick@innovia.org.

About Innovia Foundation

As the community foundation for Eastern Washington and North Idaho, we partner with people who want to improve their communities and make the world better. We work together to identify and respond to our region's greatest opportunities, help those in need, and leave a lasting impact. Our mission is to ignite generosity that transforms lives and communities. We envision vibrant and sustainable communities where every person has the opportunity to thrive. Each year, Innovia Foundation invests over $10 million into our communities through grants and scholarships.

Award-Winning Outdoor Space Inspiration

— Family Features —

Renovating your home's outdoor spaces not only enhances the aesthetic but can also provide a host of recreational benefits. Taking a look at award-winning projects can help many homeowners draw inspiration while also identifying capable, reputable contractors to take on the project.

For example, selected by a panel of industry experts based on functionality, aesthetics, craftsmanship, innovation and degree of difficulty, these 2021 National Association of the Remodeling Industry National Contractor of the Year (CotY) Award Winners showcase a variety of ideas for upgrading your outdoor spaces. Find the complete list at nari.org/cotywinners.

Residential Landscape Design/Outdoor Living Under $100,000

The clients wanted to upgrade a poorly draining, impractical backyard into an attractive, functional outdoor entertainment space that flowed from the renovated basement. The project included an outdoor area for entertaining, outdoor kitchen, spacious patio with a custom concrete fire pit, oversized ceiling fans, ample storage and landscaping complete with native plants around the perimeter.

“By working on this project, we learned how important it is to take a holistic look at what clients are trying to accomplish with their renovations,” said Thomas Boyce, president of Boyce Design & Contracting. “Often with outdoor living projects, designers and contractors look at the exterior of the home in isolation. We learned to look at how the interior and exterior of the home connect to each other to make sure the features and floor plan flow and work well together. By taking this approach, we were able to achieve a better finished product that is more functional and attractive for our clients.”

Residential Landscape Design/Outdoor Living

$100,000-$250,000

A young, active family was looking to create a distinct outdoor living space with multiple entertainment spaces that tied in with the existing aesthetic and elevated the home amongst its neighbors. The low-maintenance backyard now features an outdoor

"The aesthetic of the outdoor areas was designed not only for function but also to reflect the interiors and keep the inside-outside living feeling continuous," said Tim Johnson, owner and founder of Livit Site + Structure. "For example, the shiplap used on the fire table is the same shiplap featured inside the home. Likewise, the Douglas fir timbers used on the pergola are the same as the interior ceiling beams."

Residential Landscape Design/Outdoor Living
Over $250,000

A 4,000-square-foot project built at four different elevations, this client wanted to include a safe way to move from the upper level to the backyard without coming through the house, a structure for shade and protection from mosquitoes and a pool with features that reflected the home. Adding a covered screen room with individually controlled wall panels, see-through fireplace, fountain, pool with sheer descent waterfalls, recycled rock walls and staircase from the upper elevation while enclosing it all within a stone wall met those expectations.

“A sound piece of advice for anyone building anything in the backyard: get a plan,” said Ken DePratt, owner of KD Poolsapes, Ltd. “Have it match your expectations list. Then, and only then, will you know if it matches your budget. We would recommend doing your research when taking on a pool project of any size. It’s hard to push that hole around once it’s dug.”

The logo for CDA Structures Inc. features the letters "CDA" in a large, stylized, metallic font with rivets, set within a dark, rounded rectangular frame. Below this, the word "STRUCTURES" is written in a bold, italicized, sans-serif font, followed by "inc." in a smaller font.

Forest Measurements Class to be held in Sandpoint

— University of Idaho Extension —

Good decisions require good information on a forest; whether determining how much to thin or what species, preparing for a timber sale, or managing for other values. Some forest owners like to make these decisions intuitively. But careful measurements can often illuminate misconceptions about a forest developed from casual observations.

A University of Idaho Extension program titled "Measuring Your Trees" is designed to give forest owners a basic understanding of forest measurements. It also will help them collect some of their own data and strengthen their interactions with professional foresters and technicians regarding data-based forest management decisions.

The morning will be spent indoors, focusing on principles guiding measurement of trees and forests. The afternoon will be spent outdoors, measuring a variety of forest characteristics using clinometers, diameter tapes, angle gauges, and other forest measurement tools.

"Measuring Your Trees" will be held in Sandpoint, from 8am to 5pm on Wednesday, June 7, 2023, beginning at the University of Idaho Sandpoint Organic Agriculture Center, located at 10881 N. Boyer Road, north of Sandpoint. The program can accommodate up to 30 people. Participants should pre-register by May 31st to ensure their place. Registration forms are available at local University of Idaho Extension Offices or can be downloaded at <http://www.uidaho.edu/extension/forestry>. A $20.00 registration fee covers a field notebook of publications and refreshments.

"Measuring Your Trees" is an Idaho Forest Stewardship program, co-sponsored by University of Idaho Extension, the Idaho Department of Lands, and many other agencies and organizations. For questions on the program, contact Chris Schnepf, 208-292-1288.

Grill and Chill: Memorial Day BBQ With a Mediterranean Twist

As we approach Memorial Day weekend, it's time to honor and remember those who have served our country and made the ultimate sacrifice for our freedom. While we enjoy time with friends and family, take a moment to reflect on the meaning of this important day.

This weekend also marks the unofficial start of summer and the beginning of backyard BBQ season. Get ready to add some pizzazz to your celebration with a scrumptious Mediterranean Chicken and Veggie Kabobs recipe, paired with a cool and creamy dipping sauce and warm pita bread.

These kabobs are fresh, healthy and won't break the bank. They're loaded with juicy chicken thighs, red bell peppers, zucchini, summer squash and red onion, all marinated in Italian dressing for incredible flavor. And let's not forget about the Easy Tzatziki Sauce with Feta — it's the perfect complement to these tasty kabobs. Simply grate some cucumber, mix with Greek yogurt, garlic and feta, and you're ready to go.

So, fire up the grill, thread those skewers and get ready for a meal that's sure to impress!

EASY TZATZIKI SAUCE WITH FETA

Yield: 4 (1/3 cup) servings

Time: 5 minutes

1 (approximately 10 ounce) cucumber

1 cup plain Greek yogurt

2 cloves garlic, minced

1/4 cup feta cheese, crumbled

Black pepper

Lemon wedges for serving, optional

Using a box grater, grate the cucumber on the largest grating side then squeeze it to remove most (but not all) of the liquid. Place the cucumber in a medium bowl and add the yogurt, garlic and feta. Stir to combine and set aside so the flavors can marry. This can be made in advance and refrigerated, if desired. Before serving, add black pepper to taste and squeeze a lemon wedge over the bowl and stir once more.

www.JasonCoblentz.com

These kabobs are fresh, healthy and won't break the bank.

Mediterranean Chicken and Veggie Kabobs

Yield: 4 kabobs

Total Time: 1 hour

4 long metal skewers or bamboo skewers

1 1/2 pounds boneless, skinless chicken thighs, cut into 1 1/2-inch pieces

2 large red bell peppers, cut into 1 1/2-inch pieces

1 medium zucchini, sliced into 1/2-inch rounds

1 medium summer squash, sliced into 1/2-inch rounds

1 medium red onion, cut into 1 1/2-inch pieces

1 cup bottled Italian dressing

Pita bread for serving

If you're using bamboo skewers, soak them in water for 30 minutes prior to use.

Artistically thread the chicken and vegetables onto the skewers. Place the kabobs into a 9-by-13-inch casserole dish and pour the Italian dressing on top. Cover with plastic wrap and marinate, refrigerated, for at least 30 minutes or up to 24 hours.

When you're ready to cook, preheat the grill to medium-high heat. Make your tzatziki sauce if you haven't already. Place the chicken kabobs on the grill and close the lid. Cook for 8 to 10 minutes per side, or until the chicken is cooked through. Let the kabobs rest for 5 minutes before serving. While you wait, warm the pita bread on the grill.

Serve the kabobs with pita bread and tzatziki sauce for dipping or schmearing on the pitas.

A good wine pairing for these kabobs would be a light-bodied red wine (like pinot noir, grenache or Beaujolais) or a crisp white wine with bright acidity (like sauvignon blanc, a pinot grigio or a chenin blanc). Any of these wines would make for a delicious and complementary pairing.

So, fire up the grill, savor the flavors and cherish the memories with loved ones. Have a safe and happy Memorial Day weekend.

A Recording Of The 2023 Lake Pend Oreille 'State Of The Lake' Meeting Presentations And Videos Is Now Available Online

— Idaho Dept. of Fish & Game —

If you missed the in-person meeting, give the video a watch to get up-to-speed

If you missed the 2023 Lake Pend Oreille "State of the Lake" meeting on April 13, you can now watch the presentations that were given and the videos that were shown at the meeting. Please visit our Lake Pend Oreille Fisheries website at idfg.idaho.gov/LPO to watch it.

Fishery staff from the Panhandle Region spent the evening giving presentations and answering questions about the diverse fisheries and management practices occurring in Lake Pend Oreille. The video provides an in-depth look at the latest population trends and research related to kokanee, rainbow trout, lake trout, walleye and more.

We appreciate everyone who participated in this year's meeting. Our mission as an agency is to preserve, protect, perpetuate and manage the fish and wildlife resources of our great state, and it's always rewarding to hear directly from the people we serve, which is you. Thank you!

For more information, please visit the Lake Pend Oreille Fisheries website or contact the Panhandle Regional office at (208) 769-1414.

You can also follow the Panhandle Region Facebook page to get regular news and updates.

Upper Missouri River Reservoir Fisheries Plan Meeting April 19

— Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks —

HELENA - Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks will hold its annual update meeting on the Upper Missouri River Reservoir Fisheries Management Plan on Wednesday, April 19.

The meeting will be held at 6 p.m. in the auditorium of the Montana WILD Education Center in Helena and will update anglers and the public on population trends of principle game fish in the plan area.

The Upper Missouri River Reservoir Fisheries Management Plan guides fisheries management for Canyon Ferry, Hauser and Holter reservoirs and the Missouri River from Toston to Canyon Ferry and from Hauser Dam to upper Holter Reservoir. The plan sets fisheries goals and strategies to maintain quality multi-species fisheries throughout the system and was approved by the Fish and Wildlife Commission in December 2019.

More information on the management plan is available here or contact fisheries biologist Adam Strainer at astrainer@mt.gov

Time

— Vivian Bogardus —

He never took time to brush or floss
So a mouthful of teeth paid the cost.

He never took time to lend a hand
So when in need, alone he did stand.

Didn't take time to say, I forgive
So lived alone as long as he lived.

Never took time to love or to laugh
He lied and cheated and lived by graft.

Lived to make money, no time for friends.
Money was all he had at the end.

But now he has time, what can I say,
The mean old codger died today.

National Safe Boating Week Stay Safe, Wear Your Life Jacket!!!

— United States Coast Guard Auxiliary —

The United States Coast Guard Auxiliary, Coeur d'Alene Flotilla 84, in partnership with the National Safe Boating Council, announce the start of the year-round effort to promote safe boating. National Safe Boating Week (May 20-26, 2023) provides the opportunity to remind the public about safety on the water and the importance of wearing a life jacket!

The USCG Auxiliary wants to ensure that recreational boaters have an enjoyable and safe time on the water this summer; however, as spring brings warmer weather, people get a false sense of security. Though it may feel like summer outside, it is only May, and as the mountain snows start to melt, it flows into lakes and rivers and keeps them very cold. The rivers are very dangerous this time of year with the icy water and fast moving current. It is crucial to wear a life jacket when near any body of water. Here are some alarming facts to consider:

- The cold water gasp takes your breath away and makes it hard to function.
- You have one minute to get your breathing under control before cold water shock occurs.
- It takes less than ½ cup of water in your lungs to drown.
- After about 10 minutes in the frigid water, muscles stop working and treading water becomes impossible.
- Hypothermia sets in within the hour.

Life Jackets Save Lives – Wear Yours!

Visit the Flotilla 84 United States Coast Guard Auxiliary website to learn about volunteer opportunities at <http://www.uscgaux.info/content.php?unit=130-08-04> or contact Kathleen Goodwin at kathleengoodwin@yahoo.com.

Live Oak Society

In 1934, Dr. Edwin Lewis Stephens, president of Southwestern Louisiana Institute, founded the Live Oak Society, a registry of live oak trees. According to bylaws, the only human member permitted in the Society is the honorary Chairman, who registers and records live oak members. To become registered, the live oak must have a girth (trunk circumference) of 8 feet or greater.

Escale Watch

The Louis Vuitton Escale Time Zone watch features the world’s 24 time zones. Escale (“stopover” in French) was created to appeal to the world traveler not only with the time zones, but with the colorful flags of the world represented on the watch’s face. The images of the flags also link the contemporary wristwatches to earlier days of Louis Vuitton, when travelers could customize their LV luggage with flags of the countries where they traveled.

This watch was introduced in 2010, and there is still an Escale line. Louis Vuitton’s annual designs include a resort collection also called Escale.

Q I have a pair of gold-tone costume jewelry earrings that I love even though they are not real gold. A small green spot has appeared on each one where the post attaches. Can the spots be removed? Are the earrings safe to wear?

A The green spots, called verdigris, are a patina that can form on copper, bronze, brass and gold or silver plate. You can clean it off your earrings and continue wearing them. You can try removing small spots with a toothpick, soft-bristled toothbrush, pencil eraser or microfiber cloth. If you need something stronger, mix a small amount of dishwashing detergent with warm water and use this to clean your jewelry. If your earrings don’t have pearls or foil-backed rhinestones, you can dilute white vinegar or lemon juice in water, soak a cotton ball in the solution, and hold it to the green spot. Or apply ketchup to the spot; it is acidic, and its thick consistency means it won’t run like a liquid. But be careful when you use acids to clean jewelry! They can discolor gold-tone metals, damage pearls (both real and fake) and foil-backed stones, and weaken some glues. To keep verdigris from forming, store your pieces separately, avoid exposing them to moisture, oils and cosmetics, and make sure your skin is clean and dry when you wear them.

This Escale watch in a signed box was estimated at $3,000 to $5,000. It sold for $3,000 at a Rago auction in 2021.

TIP: Use eyeglass-cleaning tissues to clean the glass on small pictures.

Post Falls Park Pond In North Idaho Is Closed This Season And Will Not Be Stocked With Trout

— Idaho Dept. of Fish & Game —

Post Falls Park Pond is closed and will not be stocked with rainbow trout this spring and summer

Post Falls Park Pond in North Idaho is being closed for the 2023 season to remove an invasive snail species commonly known as the Chinese mystery snail. Mystery snails were illegally introduced to the pond. As a result, the pond will not be fishable and will not be stocked with catchable rainbow trout during spring and summer 2023.

The decision to close the pond was made by the City of Post Falls Parks and Recreation Department and Avista, and they are working together on management measures to remove the snails. Control options may include a range of mechanical, chemical and/or physical removal techniques during the remainder of 2023. When the project is complete, the pond will be stocked with fish in 2024. More information about the project can be found at www.post-falls.gov/city_info/Press/2023/FallsPondClosed.pdf.

LOOKING FOR temporary workers, 8 hour shifts, 7am-3pm. You can work 7 days or 1 day a week, flexible. Pay $20+ hour DOE. 208-755-4933

Just Like Cats & Dogs by Dave T. Phipps

Mystery snails are from Asia, and they found their way to the United States through the pet trade. When their populations are left unchecked, they can clog water-intakes, transmit diseases and parasites to fish and wildlife, compete with native snail populations for food and resources and negatively affect the availability and flow of nutrients and food in water bodies they occupy.

This is a good reminder that it is illegal to introduce fish and other aquatic animals to local waters. It is likely that mystery snails were introduced to Post Falls Park Pond by someone emptying their aquarium. Even if well-intentioned, these actions often result in negative outcomes.

Post Falls Park Pond is a popular urban fishing spot – receiving approximately 4,000 catchable rainbow trout from April to Sept. each year. Thankfully, there are other nearby fishing spots that offer similar opportunities. A few to consider are:

- Fernan Lake (receiving approximately 7,000 catchable rainbow trout in May)
- Hauser Lake (known for good panfish and bass fishing)
- Kelso Lake (receiving approximately 5,000 catchable rainbow trout in May)

For other ideas on fishing spots, check out our Idaho Fishing Planner. For quick access to our stocking schedules this spring and summer, check out our stocking schedule for the Panhandle Region.

For more information or if you have questions about fish stocking, please contact the Panhandle Regional office. If you have questions about the closure of Post Falls Park Pond to attempt to eradicate mystery snails, please contact the Post Falls Park and Recreation Department.

You can also follow the Panhandle Region Facebook page to get regular news and updates.

Memorial Day Last Monday in May

— National Day Calendar —

Each year in the United States, Americans observe the Federal holiday, Memorial Day, the last Monday in May. It honors and remembers all men and women who have died while serving in the United States Armed Forces. Memorial Day is also a day to remember all loved ones who have passed away.

Traditionally on Memorial Day, the flag of the United States of America is raised briskly to the top of the staff then solemnly lowered to the half-staff position where it remains until noon. At noon, it is then raised to full-staff for the remainder of the day.

When the flag is at half-staff, the position is in remembrance of the more than one million men and women who gave their lives for their country. Raising the flag at noon signifies the nation lives, that the country is resolved not to let their sacrifice be in vain but to rise up in their honor and continue to fight for liberty and justice for all.

In the United States, Memorial Day also traditionally marks the beginning of summer.

HOW TO OBSERVE MEMORIAL DAY

Attend Memorial Day services in your community. In your own way, pay tribute in remembrance of service members who have died while serving. Visit a veterans' cemetery to honor those who've impacted your life. Use #MemorialDay to post on social media.

MEMORIAL DAY HISTORY

Honoring the men and women who have died while serving in the military, communities, individuals, and organizations have kept Memorial Day in various forms in the United States since the end of the Civil War. General John Logan first called for a nationwide day of remembrance on May 5, 1868. The observance was called Decoration Day, and it was observed on May 30th, 1868.

Decoration Day

General James Garfield spoke at Arlington National Cemetery with Generals Grant, Howard, Logan, Pane, Wool, and Hancock in attendance. Volunteers also decorated the graves of 20,000 Union and Confederate soldiers.

Across the country, humble tributes occurred on that first Decoration Day. Just outside Fort Stevens near Washington, D.C., there was a small cemetery where 40 soldiers were buried, one of whom belonged to a widow from Northern Vermont. He was one of three sons she lost to the war. On Decoration Day, she went to the cemetery carrying 40 wreaths for 40 graves.

Someone placed a laurel wreath upon the head of a Lincoln statue at City Hall, Washington, D.C.

In Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroads transported passengers to the Spring Grove Cemetery. As a tribute, communities displayed flags at half-mast along the routes. More volunteers placed floral wreaths on the soldiers' graves, and speeches were made. Many of the first Decoration Days recognized only the Union soldiers. However, other events included the Confederate soldiers as well. Over time, the day grew to include all those soldiers lost during the conflict.

Decoration Day gradually became known as Memorial Day and now honors all U.S. service members who have died during a military conflict. Memorial Day continued to be observed on May 30th for many years. Then, in 1968, Congress passed the Uniform Monday Holiday Act of 1968. Since 1971, Memorial Day has been observed the last Monday of May.

National Paper Airplane Day May 26th

— National Day Calendar —

On May 26th each year, National Paper Airplane Day honors the simple aeronautical toy that has been around for thousands of years.

National Paper Airplane Day provides an excuse to play! This inexpensive, healthy, and stimulating form of entertainment brings lots of joy, too. In other words, put down your smartphones and get outside for some primitive fun!

Did you know?

- Many believe the use of paper airplanes originated 2,000 years ago in China.
- The earliest known date of the creation of modern paper planes was said to have been 1909.
- The largest paper aircraft had a wingspan of 59.74 ft. Students and employees from Germany created it on 28th September 2013.
- Joe Ayooob recorded the longest distance flown by a paper airplane in February 2012. His plane flew 226 feet, 10 inches.
- The longest-lasting paper airplane flight flew 29.2 seconds.

There is more than one way to fold paper for a test flight. Find tips for designs at www.foldnfly.com.

HOW TO OBSERVE PAPER AIRPLANE DAY

You can celebrate in a variety of ways. From challenges to creating new designs, paper airplane making is for everyone! Whether you play all day or just a few minutes, invite someone to join you. It is a great way to share the fun.

- Test your paper airplane-making skills!
- Like the paper airplane day Facebook page to join in on the festivities.
- Watch flights on YouTube.
- Use #PaperAirplaneDay to share on social media.

Educators and families, visit the National Day Classroom to discover fun ways to Celebrate Every Day!

Quiz

Q: The four forces that influence the flight of a paper airplane are thrust, lift, gravity, and drag.

How do these forces impact your paper airplane?

A: When you throw the plane forward, this is called thrust.

Lift is a force that acts on the wings and helps the plane to move up. Big wings increase lift.

Gravity pulls the plane down. The right materials create a lighter aircraft that stays up for longer.

The tail of the plane causes drag. It is the opposite of thrust, and it makes the plane slow down.

Q: Paper airplane contests compete for the top place in what two categories?

A: Distance and Time to float.

How did you do?

Preventing Ear Infections in Dogs

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: My German Shepherd puppy, Max, seems to get an ear infection every other week. He's miserable, shaking his head from side to side. And he hates having ear drops put in – a job that gets more difficult the larger he gets! How can I stop the constant ear infections? – Betsy J., Syracuse, New York

DEAR BETSY: Dogs can be very prone to ear infections. The shape of their ear canal is the most likely reason. Allergies and ear mites vie for the title of top irritant in a pet's ear canal.

The symptoms are probably very familiar to you. Dark discharge from the ears, accompanied by an unusual, dank odor, frequent head shaking, scratching at the ears, and perhaps some scabbing of the outer ear. A veterinarian can pinpoint redness and swelling inside the ear canal as well.

Treatment should always start at the veterinarian's office. There, cleaning and disinfection of the ear will be done, and then your dog will likely be prescribed medication – typically eardrops – to be administered for up to 10 days. After treatment is complete, you'll want to prevent future infections by gently cleaning Max's ears with an ear cleaning solution for dogs and cotton balls (not Q-tips).

Getting a big dog to hold still for treatment can be a struggle. Here's one method: If he's very reactive, try to stand over Max with one leg on each side and his head facing forward, away from you. Hold him under his muzzle and apply the medication or cleaning solution to one ear and massage the base of the ear for 30 seconds. Let go of his muzzle and allow him to shake his head. Repeat on the other side. Finish by gently swiping the ear canal with cotton balls.

Send your tips, comments or questions to ask@pawscorner.com.
