F&G Begins Annual Grizzly Bear Research Trapping In The Caribou-Targhee National Forest

— Idaho Dept. of Fish & Game —

It is extremely important that the public respect warning signs and not enter posted areas

Biologists from Idaho Fish and Game will begin annual research trapping efforts for grizzly bears in the Upper Snake Region beginning in early July. Trapping efforts will occur in the Caribou-Targhee National Forest within the caldera in Island Park, west of Highway 20 along the Centennial Mountain Range, and in the Cave Falls and Teton areas near the Wyoming border. Trapping efforts will conclude near the end of August.

Trap sites, trails and roads leading to the trap sites will be marked with bright warning and closure signs. It is extremely important that the public respect these signs and not enter posted areas.

Captured bears are immobilized and handled in accordance with strict protocols developed by the Interagency Grizzly Bear Study Team. Bears that meet our criteria are fitted with a radio collar. By observing radio-collared females, we are able to document age of first reproduction, average litter size, cub and yearling survival, and how often females produce a litter. Data collected from both sexes allow us to estimate survival among different sex and age classes, causes of mortality, and gain a better understanding of habitat use and food habits.

For more information regarding grizzly bear trapping efforts or Fish and Game's role in grizzly bear management, call 208-525-7290.

FWP Offers Tips About New Sha-Ron Fishing Access Parking Lot And Amenities

— Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks —

EAST MISSOULA – A new parking lot opened last month at Sha-Ron Fishing Access Site (FAS), located along the Clark Fork River in East Missoula, and Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks recreation staff are sharing a few tips for those that plan to check out the new space.

"The lot opened just in time for the busy summer season, and we're excited to see people out there already," said Loren Flynn, FWP regional recreation manager. "As the floating season continues to pick up pace, we wanted to share a few tips about what to expect."

Sha-Ron FAS visitor tips:

- The new parking area is located just upstream from the existing Sha-Ron FAS, and is connected by a paved, accessible path.
- The lot can hold 68 vehicles but no trailers. The original parking lot accommodates trailers and is where the boat ramp is located.
- The site is day use only (sunrise to sunset).
- Please respect neighboring private land and stay within the fence or on the paved trail.
- Parking is no longer allowed along Highway 200. Please use one of the parking lots or take a shuttle to the site.
- There is a bus stop at Sha-Ron that is used by Mountain Line and the University of Montana U-Dash river shuttles. Shuttles are free, and floaters can find out more information through Mountain Line and U-Dash.
- The expansion included the addition of a portable toilet adjacent to the new parking lot.
- There are no trash facilities, so please plan to pack in, pack out.
- On an extra busy day, if parking is not available in the lot, there is plenty of overflow parking available at the Confluence Area of Milltown State Park, a few miles upstream.

FWP also reminds visitors that anyone using the Sha-Ron facilities must have a Montana Conservation License. As of July 1, 2023, everyone 12 and older needs a Montana Conservation License to access most state lands. This includes all types of recreation—launching watercraft, hiking, biking, wildlife viewing, etc. Find out more: fwp.mt.gov/buyandapply/conservation-license.

The Sha-Ron access sites sees a lot of traffic from those floating the Clark Fork River just upstream of Missoula, and the popularity has increased in recent years. The new parking lot helps to accommodate that increased use. Although FWP manages the site, its creation was the result of a collaboration between Missoula County, the Montana Department of Transportation, the Missoula Metropolitan Planning Organization, Mountain Line, the Clark Fork Coalition, JAG Construction, FWP and local community councils and residents.

long! On Friday night, we will be featuring Master-class Big Band from 6:00-7:30, a Spokane group of veteran musicians partnered with students bringing you contagiously fun, multi-generational top hits. On Saturday night bring down your lawn chairs and enjoy the sounds of Brad Corrigan & the Waves from 4:30-7:30. Brad Corrigan, a member of indie band DISPATCH will feature an eclectic mix of music from Brad's friends in folk, roots, and rock coming together special for our event, guests include Emelise, Paul Beaubrun and Tini Snider. In addition to these featured performances, we are excited to welcome the Northwest Hula company. The Coeur d'Alene Music Conservatory. Rosie Cerquone, The Side Project and many more.

New to the festival this year is a focus on children's entertainment, kids can get hands on and learn the art of entertainment from some of our amazing local music, dance and theater groups on our south stage. We are offering interactive workshops the whole family will enjoy from the Sorenson Student Drummers, Lake City Highland Dancers, North Idaho Rock School and this is just a few of the highlights, check our website, artonthegreencda.com/entertainment, for the full line up. Nearby in our Art on the Green sponsored Children's Art Garden, you will find fun art projects to complete each day. Special activities include Sand Painting on Friday from 1pm-5pm, Mosaics on Saturday from 11am-3pm and Bird-houses on Sunday from 11am-3pm.

This year for the first time Citizens Council for the Arts, (CCA) has sponsored a Student Juried Art Show open to local high school students. The accepted art will be on display adjacent to our long running Juried Art Show. Don't forget to put in your vote for the People's Choice Award for one of the Juried Show Entries!

CCA volunteers work an estimated 5000 hours during the year planning this long running Art Festival. The week of the festival will have 300+ volunteers that support all of the food, children's art garden area, juried shows, our information booth, entertainment team, grounds crews and beer and wine garden. All profits from these offerings are used to support CCA community projects such as grants to local art teachers for supplies, art for a local school each year (this year it is going to Lakeland High School) and also to support the festival for the next year.

We believe these types of events are great opportunities for local people to get out and experience all of the arts the surrounding area has to offer. There is something at Art on the Green for everyone. Please stop by our CCA (Citizens' Council for the Arts, LLC, organizer of the festival) Booth if you are interested in joining the volunteer team that produces this amazing festival each year.

Buffalo Soldiers Day July 28th

— National Day Calendar —

Buffalo Soldiers Day on July 28th commemorates the formation of the first regular Army regiments comprising African American soldiers in 1866.

Congress established the first peacetime all-black regiments in the regular U.S. Army after the end of the Civil War. The Buffalo Soldiers (one of many African-American regiments raised during the Civil War) were the first instituted.

Since they were frontier regiments, Buffalo Soldiers of the 9th and 10th Cavalries protected unsettled lands as pioneers moved westward. They also faced the hardships of the Wild West. During and after the Civil War, Army desertion rates remained high. However, among Buffalo Soldiers, low rates prevailed. They were also noted for their dedication and commitment during the Spanish-American War and other engagements during the late 1800s.

During World War I, each unit received stateside assignments, with some exceptions. Yet, neither unit saw action during World War II. In 1944, the Army activated both regiments and transferred service members to other units, as integration in the military began.

In honor of the first Buffalo Soldiers Day in 1992, General Colin Powell dedicated a monument to the Buffalo Soldier. It's located at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, where the 10th Calvary Buffalo Soldiers were based. The Buffalo Soldier Museum is located in Houston, Texas.

On September 6, 2005, the oldest living Buffalo Soldier died. Mark Matthews lived to be 111 years old. For his dedicated services, he was laid to rest at Arlington National Cemetery.

HOW TO OBSERVE BUFFALO SOLDIERS DAY

Visit Buffalo Soldier monuments across the country. Read about their history and sacrifices. Post on social media using #BuffaloSoldiersDay to encourage others to pay tribute to these heroes.

BUFFALO SOLDIERS DAY HISTORY

In 1992, the United States Congress passed a law designating July 28th as Buffalo Soldiers Day. Since then, commemorations honoring the Buffalo Soldiers have been held throughout the United States.

— Vivian E. Bogardus —

The scandalous Gavin McLadd was a nasty mulish cad.
This bully like none other was love only by his Mother.

It was on one cold starlit night he set out to start a fight.
He stopped at Rough Neck Saloon by the light of an Autumn moon.

He sat in the dark on a stool heckling the men playing pool.
The bikers soon lost their cool and took young McLadd off his stool!

Knives came out and blood was about the fool is dead came a shout!
This is his story, but very sad, for that was the end of Gavin McLadd.

Idaho Conservation Officer Named Pogue-Elms Law Enforcement Officer of the Year

— Idaho Dept. of Fish & Game —

Officer Chad Wippermann receives prestigious award from WAFWA

Idaho Fish and Game Conservation Officer Chad Wippermann has been named the 2022 Pogue-Elms Law Enforcement Officer-of-the-Year. The award is presented by the Western Association of Fish and Wildlife Agencies (WAFWA) and is considered one of the most prestigious awards given a wildlife officer in North America.

Conservation Officer Chad Wippermann holds a mule deer taken illegally with a rifle during the 2022 archery-only season in Idaho's Lemhi County. Through Wippermann's efforts, the violator was successfully prosecuted and received $2,100 in penalties, 2-year probation, and loss of hunting license for five years.

Wippermann has protected Idaho's wildlife and fisheries resources as a conservation officer since 2009 and is based in Idaho's Salmon Region.

"Chad's work exemplifies the outstanding effort, sacrifice and dedication of men and women conservation officers in Idaho and across the nation," said Greg Wooten, IDFG enforcement chief. "His tenacity paired with his interpersonal skills and likability is a perfect fit for conservation law enforcement."

The Pogue-Elms Award was created by WAFWA to honor Bill Pogue and Conley Elms; two Idaho conservation officers killed in the line of duty in 1981. The award is given on their behalf to a wildlife law enforcement officer who exemplifies courage, dedication, sacrifice and commitment to their work.

Wippermann's nomination spoke of his tireless work ethic, tenacity, and attention to detail in building thorough cases leading to successful prosecution. He uses technology to help solve complex cases and shares that knowledge with others. Besides detecting multiple, complex violations requiring extensive investigation and coordination across several states, Wippermann is a field training officer, mentoring two new officers during several hundred hours of field investigations and training. Wippermann is an ambassador, and through his personable, friendly demeanor, he gained the respect and appreciation of landowners and sportsmen throughout the region. He serves as a model for landowner relations, law enforcement, and responsible wildlife management which together garner public support for the conservation work of the Idaho Fish and Game.

WAFWA represents 23 states and Canadian provinces, spanning from Alaska to Texas and Hawaii to Saskatchewan. WAFWA is a strong advocate of the rights of states and provinces to manage fish and wildlife within their borders. It is a key organization in promoting the principles of sound resource management and building partnerships at the regional, national and international levels in order to enhance wildlife conservation efforts and the protection of associated habitats in the public interest. Honorees for this award exemplify the lifelong commitment that conservation officers across the country dedicate to their work.

Cooking Like a Pro, Mastering Spaghetti Squash

Whether you wish to lose weight, improve digestive health, eat more veggies, lower your carbohydrates, go paleo or gluten free, or just love delicious food, you'll want to say hello to my little friend — spaghetti squash.

This squash is cooked into long tender strands like, well ... spaghetti. I'm not going to tell you it tastes exactly like pasta, because it doesn't. But it's delicious! The taste is sweet and mild, so this guilt free spaghetti alternative is a perfect substitute in your favorite pasta dishes.

The health benefits are significant with this nutrient-dense squash. You'll get vitamins, antioxidants, fatty acids, minerals and fiber. One cup of cooked spaghetti squash has 31 calories and 5.5 grams of net carbs, compared to 221 calories and 43 grams of carbs in one cup of cooked pasta. And can we be honest? Does anyone eat just one cup of pasta?

Spaghetti squash is easy, inexpensive and versatile. Stock up when it's on sale, because it keeps for a month stored in a cool dry place and up to three months in the fridge.

This big yellow squash can look intimidating, but I promise it's easy to prepare. Like all hard-shell squash, the rind is hard to cut. To make this easier, pierce the squash with a knife and cook in the microwave for 3-4 minutes to soften before cutting.

The easiest preparation is to roast the squash in halves. Use a sharp knife to cut lengthwise and scoop out the seeds. Place it cut side down in a roasting pan. You can add a little water and cover with foil if you like, but it's not necessary. Bake at 400 degrees for 40 to 55 minutes depending on size. It's done when it's easily pierced with a knife.

You can also microwave spaghetti squash. Slice lengthwise and remove the seeds. Place squash cut sides down in a 9x13 glass baking dish. Add an inch of water and cover tightly with plastic wrap. Microwave the squash on high for 15 minutes; check to see if the squash is thoroughly cooked. If not, microwave for 5 more minutes. Carefully remove the squash from the microwave and let stand until cool.

Spaghetti squash, the pasta proxy from produce.

After the squash is cooked, scrape the squash with a fork to remove the spaghetti-like strands. As an entree, try it with marinara, pesto or Alfredo sauce.

This fresh, versatile recipe is a favorite as a light lunch or smartly paired with chicken, fish or shrimp.

Yield: 4 servings
Time: 60 minutes

LEMON BUTTER SPAGHETTI SQUASH

- 1 (2 pound) spaghetti squash
- 1 teaspoon olive oil
- Pinch of salt
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 garlic clove, finely minced
- 1 lemon, juice and zest
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley or basil
- 2 tablespoons sliced almonds, optional

Preheat the oven to 400 degrees. Line a baking sheet with parchment or foil.

Slice the spaghetti squash in half lengthwise, scrape out the seeds. Brush all sides lightly with olive oil and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place it cut side down on the prepared baking sheet. Roast for 45 to 55 minutes, or until easily pierced with a knife.

About 5 minutes before the squash is finished roasting, heat a small saucepan over medium-low heat and melt the butter. Stir in the garlic and cook for 1 minute. Stir in the lemon juice, zest and a sprinkle of salt and pepper. Bring mixture to a simmer, then remove from heat.

Scrape the squash strands into a serving bowl or platter. Toss, gently, with the lemon butter mixture. Top with parsley and almonds. Enjoy!

THIMBLE THEATRE PRESENTS

POPEYE

BY RANDY MILHOLLAND

ARE DEEZIL AND HER LITTLE FRIEND JUST GONNA WASTE THE SUMMER PLAYING VIDEO GAMES?

THEY NEED A REAL HOBBY TO KEEP 'EM OCCUPIED.

ASK DEEZIL IF SHE WANTS TO WORRY ABOUT THINGS THAT AREN'T REALLY A BIG DEAL.

THEN YOU TWO CAN HAVE A HOBBY YOU BOTH SHARE.

IT'S SUMMER! YOU KIDS SHOULD BE OUTDOORS PLAYING!

DADDY, IT'S TOO HOT TO PLAY OUTSIDE!

IT'S ONLY A LIL' OVER A HUNDRED DEGREES. DISCOMFORT BUILDS CHARACTER.

CASTOR, YOU'RE CONFUSING "CHARACTER" WITH "HEAT STROKE."

CHILDHOOD SHOULD BE SPENT OUTSIDE. WHEN I WAS YOUR AGE, I HAD A LEMONADE STAND AND—

DON'T YOU LIE TO MY GRANDBABY!

MOM?!

I COULD ALMOST NEVER GET YOU TO PLAY OUTSIDE, BUT WHEN I DID?!

YOU'D DO SOMETHING HORRIBLE LIKE SWINDLE THE NEIGHBORHOOD KIDS WITH A SHELL GAME AND I HAD TO DEAL WITH ANGRY PARENTS!

WOW, MR. OYL! WITH THIS INFO AND A CRATE TO STAND UP TO YOU!

WHAT ELSE HAVE YOU BEEN LYING ABOUT, MISTER 'ALWAYS ATE HIS VEGGIES'?

WHY WOULD YOU DO THIS TO ME, MOM?

CASTOR THIS EXACT MOMENT WAS THE WHOLE REASON I LET YOU REACH ADULTHOOD!

1. Which artist released "Come and Stay With Me"?
2. "Believe It or Not" was the theme song on which television program?
3. Name the singer-songwriter who wrote and released "In the Midnight Hour."
4. Who wrote and released "Lay Down Beside Me"?
5. Name the song that contains these lyrics: "Looks like it's over, you knew I couldn't stay, She's comin' home today."

Answers:
1. Marianne Faithfull, in 1965. The song was also covered by Cher on her own debut solo album the same year.
2. "The Greatest American Hero," from 1981 to 1983. Sung by Joey Scarbury, the song climbed to No. 2 on the Billboard charts. Scarbury never did find major success as a singer (although he deserved it); instead, making a name for himself writing music for other artists.
3. Wilson Pickett, in 1965. The song has been widely covered by artists around the globe, including by Bruce Springsteen, The Grateful Dead and Tina Turner.
4. Don Williams, in 1979.
5. "Sad Eyes," by Robert John, in 1979. While most songs to reach the top of pop charts at that time were disco, "Sad Eyes" was the non-disco song that helped fuel a turn against disco. It deserves a listen if only for that reason.

Minecraft: The Exhibition

— Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture —

Coming in September to Spokane's Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture

Spokane, WA —The Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture (MAC) is pleased to present Minecraft: The Exhibition, opening to the public on September 16, 2023.

The 3D world of Minecraft, the best-selling video game of all time, is explored in this wide-ranging exhibition, designed for players and non-players of all ages. The exhibition celebrates how Minecraft has developed into a platform for unlimited creative expression, community-crafting, and inspiration to build a better world outside of the game.

Since 2009, Minecraft has not only become the best-selling video game in the world, it has also grown into a pop culture phenomenon by connecting millions of fans across the globe.

Created by the Museum of Pop Culture in Seattle in partnership with Mojang Studios, Minecraft: The Exhibition is dynamic and immersive, featuring life-size Minecraft creatures, scenic backdrops, a day-to-night lighting cycle, audio effects, and a gallery score. The exhibition, which runs through December 31st, will span over 6,000 square feet of the museum, and is among the most ambitious exhibitions produced by the MAC, offering fans of all ages the opportunity to experience Minecraft like never before.

"The MAC is thrilled to present Minecraft: The Exhibition. Minecraft is not only fun to play and explore, it's also relevant in real life as an engineering tool for environmental and urban designs," said Wesley Jessup, Executive Director of the Northwest Museum of Arts and Culture. "This exhibition is interactive and will be a fun and memorable experience for families and kids who are familiar with the game, as well as those learning about it for the first time," Jessup added.

The MAC is the final venue for this popular and nationally renowned traveling exhibition. Visitors are encouraged to purchase tickets in advance on the museum's website at www.northwestmuseum.org.

"We're so excited about this collaboration with the MAC because it gives everyone a chance to see the world of Minecraft through a new lens. We can't wait to see what the Inland Northwest community thinks about Minecraft: The Exhibition," said Lydia Winters, Chief Brand Officer at Mojang Studios.

In the exhibition, visitors will feel as if they have stepped inside the blocky world of Minecraft, with scenes, patterns, colors, and textures being informed by actual in-game builds. The museum galleries will feature 15 life-size characters from the game, including the explosive Creeper and mysterious Enderman. Visitors will get a hands-on experience at a real-life crafting table and face off against a groaning Minecraft Zombie. The exhibition also features game stations where players may try the game as well as explore some epic and elaborate creations from the community. Visitors will also be able to see films with interviews with the game's creative team, builders, and community members, showing how Minecraft inspires creative exchanges, community creation, and social change.

5 Facts About Dogs

— National Day Calendar —

Those of us who have a lovable mutt know that they can be the most loyal companions. While loving on our canine pal, we occasionally ponder the breeds that combined to create our perfect sidekick. In most cases, we will never know. You do know their favorite treat, their love of car rides, and their ability to take up an entire king-sized bed. Whether you love a mutt or a purebred, did you know these 5 facts about dogs?

Word Origins

The word “mutt” is derived from the term mutton-head describing the mental slowness of sheep. In the 19th century, the term came to be applied to people. Eventually, the word was shortened to mutt. Today the word “mutt” also applies to dogs with mixed or uncertain pedigree. Their mixed-status doesn’t fit in any recognized pedigree and often was not the result of intentional breeding. Despite the negative use of the word, some dog owners use the term affectionately to describe their canine companion and often use it as a badge of honor since many mutts are adopted or rescued animals that are an integral part of their family.

DNA Testing

If you’re curious about your dog’s lineage, doggie DNA tests offer you an opportunity to find out. Perhaps you adopted a dog where only the mother’s breed was certain. A DNA test will help you determine the breed or breeds of the father. Does that curly tail on your mutt make you think he’s part Rhodesian Ridgeback? How about your pup’s ability to smell bacon smoking from miles away? Or does your little yapper herd your family through the house and yard? DNA testing might confirm your suspicions.

You can also test for genetic disorders. Dog DNA tests run between $99-$200 with the least expensive ones only providing genetic breed information. How accurate are they? When it comes to identifying breeds, the more genetic markers the company searches the more accurate the test is. Another factor in accuracy is how large their reference database is for comparison. Identifying genetic markers for a disease is much more accurate than identifying lineage. Tests on the market advertise a range of 90-98 percent accurate. So if you’re super curious about why your pup has a thick fur coat and loves being outdoors in the winter, DNA testing might be an option for you.

What Makes A Mutt?

There is a difference between a mutt and a crossbred dog. The genetic makeup of a mutt includes 3 or more breeds. A crossbred animal is a cross between two purebred parents. Though one parent of a mutt may be purebred, the other parent was either a crossbreed or a mutt.

Mutt vs. Purebred

The reasons for their breeding range far and wide and fit into seven major dog groups: Working, Herding, Toy, Hound, Sporting, Non-sporting, and Terrier. Through breeding, the desirable characteristics are multiplied and enhanced. While a mutt might also feature certain characteristics such as strength, webbed feet, or herding instincts, these traits are less pronounced and appear unreliable in future generations.

Mutts and purebreds face different types of illness, too. Purebred animals are more likely to carry genetic traits that make them susceptible to joint and stomach issues, cancers, and lung conditions. Mutts are more likely to face infections early in their life due to shelter conditions or being strays. On the balance, though, veterinarians tend to agree that mutts live longer and face fewer long-term health issues.

Many purebreds have inherent traits that may cause issues if your lifestyle doesn’t fit the dog. Herding or protective instincts such as barking may not be suitable where you live. If you are away from your home a lot, breeds with high energy will not thrive in your home. These traits are multiplied in purebred animals. A mutt tends to have a more mild temperament and may fit more lifestyles and some purebred animals.

If you have allergies, selecting a purebred dog that is bred to reduce shedding and dander is easier than choosing a mutt with unknown breeds. Certain hair types also shed less.

Pooping Habits

Admit it. You’ve discussed your dog’s pooping habits. But did you know that a study was published in 2013 in the journal Frontiers in Zoology that determined dogs prefer to poop in alignment with the Earth’s magnetic field? The more calm the Earth’s magnetic field, the more likely a dog is to align their body north to south during potty breaks.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

- The blobfish gets its nickname from its saggy appearance when it's brought to the surface from the deep part of the ocean where it lives. Because it has no skeleton and very little muscle, water pressure that would crush human organs gives the animal physical structure at that depth.
- To maintain the historical accuracy of the American Colonial era, Disney World's Liberty Square was built without any restrooms. (But no, you won't find any outhouses, either.)

- Due to a technical glitch in his debit card payment processing, a man was accidentally charged 23 quadrillion dollars. As if that wasn't bad enough, since he didn't have the amount in his account, he was also charged a $15 overdraft fee!
- Carnauba wax, which is used on cars, is the same type of wax used to give gummy candy its sheen.

National Climb A Mountain Day July 30th

— National Day Calendar —

Today is July 30 on the National Day Calendar and National Climb A Mountain Day, which means this is your day to get up, show up, and move past obstacles in your life by moving personal mountains.

Climbing a mountain takes training, perseverance, and dedication. The most experienced mountain climber will tell you there is always a fear of failure. However, that fear is what keeps them driven to reach the peak of the mountain. They know once they reach the top, the feeling of accomplishment and pride will remind them they can do anything as long as they commit.

On National Climb a Mountain Day, we are encouraging everyone to overcome the fears that prevent us from reaching our peak. Commit yourself to accomplishing your goals no matter how high the mountain seems right now. We guarantee with a little perseverance and dedication, you can climb any mountain. We know you can!

National Climb A Mountain Day is a metaphor about life. Many of us see obstacles in our life that block the things we wish for. We develop a fear of failure, what ifs, and rejection. Whether its travel, a personal goal, buying an extravagant gift for yourself, or starting a new business, obstacles always prevent us from even trying. Today is your reminder to start your journey up your mountain by realizing anything is possible if you put the effort in.

Embracing Fear & Failure

Fear is the number one reason people become discouraged in life. Fear of rejection. Fear of failure. Fear of unsupportive family, friends, and peers. As a society, we have become so used to thinking of all the wrong things, we seldom think of the good things. We have generated the idea in our brains that fear and failure are bad things. Unfortunately, fear is what stops us from being our best selves. It's time to start climbing your mountain and stop letting fear and failure control you.

What if you embrace fear and failure? Yes, embrace it. Embrace the fear of failing by realizing these feelings are a normal part of any path in life. Use your experiences of fear and failure as you climb your mountain and apply what you learn along the way. Just as a mountain climber has to train to overcome their fear, we need to train ourselves into believing we can accomplish climbing our personal mountains. It may take a day, a year, or a decade, but you can do it. It doesn't matter how you get there, as long as you get there.

5 NATIONAL CLIMB A MOUNTAIN DAY CELEBRATIONS

1. Accept fear and failure as a normal part of your emotions. Use fear and failure as learning tools to correct mistakes and make adjustments as you progress.
2. Approach your mountain climbing with positivity. Even though you might struggle on your path up the mountain, each step is a step closer to your goal. Use each step as a stepping stone to become better.
3. Be brave and courageous during your journey. Face any fear or failure you might encounter with the mindset of getting through it. Because you will.
4. Make adjustments. We do not get a handbook in life. Climbing mountains means we make necessary adjustments and change courses if something isn't working. Don't be afraid to change.
5. Visualize your success each step of the way. Think about how you will feel once you reach the top of your mountain. By taking in the scenery along the way, you will appreciate the view from the top.

Share your mountain climbing journey with us on social media and tag #NationalClimbAMountainDay.

HISTORY BEHIND NATIONAL CLIMB A MOUNTAIN DAY

National Day Calendar staff rarely get an opportunity to contribute to creating a new National Day. However, in 2023, we decided to allow staff to submit ideas to our growing list of calendar content. National Climb A Mountain Day was submitted by Chris, our video/radio/audio/social media events expert.

Chris appreciates life and is always determined to tackle any obstacle, whether it be at work or in his personal life. National Climb A Mountain Day is Chris's way of encouraging everyone to keep trying and be optimistic every day.

New FWP Program To Focus On Developing Shooting-Sports Facilities

— Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks —

Public asked to participate in online survey

HELENA – Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks is seeking public input on how it should move forward with developing shooting ranges throughout the state. An online survey is open now to gauge public interest in shooting ranges and public opinion on what should be included when considering the development of new shooting ranges or improvement to existing shooting ranges. This 10-minute survey will help gather detailed information to guide efforts throughout the next five to 10 years.

FWP recently launched a Shooting Range Development Program, with the goal of developing new FWP-administered shooting sports facilities throughout the state. Facilities may include archery, pistol, rifle and other shooting-related sports.

Since the launch of the program FWP has expanded the archery range at Lone Pine State Park, is completing construction of a new archery range at Big Arm State Park and will soon begin improvements to the archery range at Makoshika State Park.

A priority for FWP is to develop shooting range facilities close to major population areas around the state, including a flagship range that could be used for competitions, tournaments and education activities, such as hunter and bowhunter education.

FWP will use the survey results to help guide the department's shooting range development plans for the coming years.

The survey is available now on the FWP website. To participate in the survey, go to: www.surveymonkey.com/r/VT5YNW2.

Idaho Chinook Leap Toward Their Final Destination

— Idaho Dept. of Fish & Game —

Anglers on Lake Pend Oreille earned over $5,000 catching walleye during May and June

Idaho salmon were made to move. They are perfectly formed to cruise from the ocean to the currents of their home rivers here in Idaho. Sometimes to finish their journey, they need to leave the water to spectacular effect.

Action at the Double Drop rapid - Regional Fisheries Biologist Amber Young and I went to check out a spot on the river: two small falls with a resting pool between. Salmon were leaping at the falls, first jumping the lower drop, resting, then hurling themselves into the foamy confusion of the upper falls. Most times they landed in the whitewater and were washed back. Sometimes their graceful arcs ended with a bounce off bare rocks (ouch!). Every now and then one would land in the clear water below the lip of the falls, give a frantic series of tail strokes, then vanish into the rapid above.

It was an amazing display of persistence and power. Idaho salmon swim farther than most other salmon and climb higher than any. The fish we saw swam more than 700 miles and climbed 4500 feet in the 5 to 6 weeks after leaving the ocean. In two months, their graceful bodies will give their last efforts to spawn the next generation of Idaho salmon. Idaho's salmon are truly awesome.
