Quick-Reference: How to Get Your Event Published

- Submit event details before 3pm Wednesday. Deadlines may be earlier if a holiday impacts our publishing schedule, so please check if you are not sure.
- Include date, time, location, description, and contact info
- Time-sensitive events submitted after the deadline may not be eligible for publication
- Save this note for future events or share with your group

WE LOVE OUR COMMUNITY!

The Nickel's Worth is a local community paper, and we love to support local causes and events! To this end, we have run our Commuity Calendar feature with a focus on not-for-profit events for many years.

Please note that due to how our paper is laid out, we run calendar entries on a space-available basis, and cannot guarantee that any given entry will make it in on a particular date.

For questions, or to explore other options, please give us a call at either 208-667-0651 or 208-667-2408
